This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

The next Seminary year will begin on Wednesday, September 18th, 1889. Applicants for admission should present themselves for examination at Sherred Hall on that day, at 9.30 A.M., provided with pen and ink. If they wish rooms reserved for them, they must send their full names, with name of College from which they graduated and Diocese to which they belong, with their testimonials, to the Dean before that date.

The requirements for admission are as follows:

TESTIMONIAL.

Evidence of having been admitted as a Candidate for Orders; or,

A Testimonial in the following (or an equivalent) form, signed by one Presbyter and four respectable Laymen, communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

> We, whose names are hereunder written, testify, from our personal knowledge and belief, that.....is pious, sober, and honest; that he is attached to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and that he is a communicant of the said Church, in good standing; and do furthermore declare that, in our opinion, he possesses such qualifications as fit him for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry.
>
> Dated,.....188

EXAMINATIONS.

Applicants for admission (unless they desire to be admitted as Special Students) are required by the Statutes to pass a written examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. S. G. Green's Hand-book to the Grammar of the New Testament, page 167 to Vocabulary: Religious Tract Society, London.
ii. The Acts of the Apostles in the original.
iii. The Outlines of Ancient Geography; Hurlbut's Manual of Biblical Geography; Rand, McNally & Co.
iv. Maclear's Class Books of the Catechism and of the History of the Old and New Testaments.
v. Craik's Outlines of the History of the English Language.
vi. To write in the presence of the Examiners a Composition on an assigned subject.

Unless they present evidence that they have been admitted as Candidates for Priests' Orders, or that they are graduates in Arts of some University or College, in which the learned languages are duly studied, they must also pass a satisfactory examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. The first book of the Æneid.
ii. The first book of the Anabasis, and the verb elements in Hadley's Greek Grammar.
iii. History—Freeman's General Sketch.

Applicants for admission to the Middle or Senior Classes, except Students with an honorable dismission from another Theological Seminary of the Church, are required, in addition to the above, to pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by the class to which they seek admission.

 Clergymen are not admitted to the Junior, Middle, or Senior Classes.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Candidates for Orders and Clergymen will be admitted to pursue such Special Studies as they may desire to engage in, without being members of any of the three classes; and the Faculty will award them certificates of proficiency in those departments upon which they have sustained an examination.

POST-GRADUATES.

Alumni of this Seminary, or of any incorporated Theological School of the Church, who wish to pursue a Post-Graduate course, are permitted to reside in the Seminary, with the privilege of having access to the Library and availing themselves of the advantages of the institution, under such rules as the Faculty may prescribe.

Applications for admission, and for further particulars, should be addressed to the Dean, 1 Chelsea Square, New York.

THE McVICKAR PRIZES.

There are two Annual Prizes of Thirty Dollars and Twenty Dollars, founded in 1850 by the late Rev. John McVickar, D.D., and the late Rev. Henry McVickar, to be awarded by the Executive Committee of the Associate Alumni, among the members of the Senior Class during the Easter recess in each year, under such an arrangement of time and place as may be agreeable to the Faculty of the Seminary, namely:

1. Of Thirty Dollars, being known as the "Greek Alumni Prize," to be tested in open competition, by oral and written examinations (though as far as may be by the pen, after the manner of the English University Examinations for Honors) on the Greek Scriptures generally, including the Septuagint, and if oral, "ad aperturam libri;" also in one or more of the Greek Fathers—such authors being designated, to those competing for the prize, at least six months before.

2. Of Twenty Dollars, to be known as the "Alumni Prize in Ecclesiastical History," the examination in the same to be conducted as above—in part at least by the pen; and to have special reference to the early history and canonical independence of the Church of England, as being "sui juris" in all Ecclesiastical matters, a distinct and independent branch of the Church of CHRIST.

Those intending to compete for the above prizes are to give their names as candidates to the Dean, or other presiding officer, at least a month before the Easter Holidays; and between such only the competition is to be held, and each prize awarded.

The above prizes are to be paid over annually, before the Commencement, by the Treasurer of the Seminary, to the Students to whom they have been respectively awarded by said Committee, as certified by its Chairman; but in case, from any cause, the distribution of the above prizes should not take place, then the interest of the fund is to be paid over to the Dean, or other presiding officer of the Seminary, to be distributed by him, at his discretion, among necessitous and deserving Students.

The names of Students receiving prizes are entered on record in a book kept in the Library for that purpose, entitled "The Alumni Prize Record," and are also entered in the Annual Report made by the Faculty to the Trustees.

THE SEYMOUR PRIZE.

This prize, for the encouragement of extemporaneous preaching, and the committing to memory of certain portions of the Book of Common Prayer, was founded by an unknown Benefactor of the Seminary, in the year 1874, and was named by him, in honor of the Rev. George F. Seymour, D.D., LL.D., then Professor of Ecclesiastical History, "The Seymour Prize."

The Prize, as at present arranged, is a gold watch of the best American manufacture, with the inscription engraved on the inside, "Instant in season, out of season," the name of the prize, the year in which it was gained, and the full name of the person to whom it is awarded.

The competition shall take place every second year, beginning with 1876, on the third Saturday in January, and is open to matriculated Students of the Senior and Middle Classes.

In order to be qualified to contend for this prize, the founder prescribes that the Student must be able to recite from memory the entire service for the burial of the dead, except the rubrics, inasmuch as the clergy are frequently called upon to perform this office when it is impossible to use the book.

The Judges who shall award the prize shall be three in number, Presbyters, not Professors nor Instructors in the Seminary, to be selected by the Dean, or Acting Dean, at least two weeks before the day of competition.

The Judges shall assign the theme to be discussed, in the form of a proposition or text of Scripture, not more than one hour before the exercises begin.

The order in which the speakers are called shall be determined by lot, the Judges drawing the names of the competitors, and calling them in the order in which their names are drawn.

Each competitor, when he has concluded his sermon or address, shall immediately retire from the room where the exercises are held, nor shall he be allowed to be present at any time while his fellow-contestants are speaking. The time allowed the several speakers shall be the same for all, and shall be determined on each occasion by the Judges.

The Judges shall meet immediately after the exercises are ended, and award the prize. In case they decide that no one of the efforts is of sufficient merit to deserve the prize, then the interest which has accrued shall be added to the principal, and go to enlarge the endowment.

THE PIERRE JAY PRIZE.

Miss Elizabeth Clarkson Jay has provided four annual prizes of $100 each, to be given to the student of the Seminary who writes the best essay on Foreign Missions. The essays are to be handed to the Dean before January 1st in each year. The Judges are to be the Dean of the Seminary, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L., and the Hon. Seth Low.

---

The time for these examinations can be arranged by addressing the Dean.

Candidates who are unable, by reason of their distant residence, or for other sufficient cause, to present themselves in person, will be examined by commission.

Candidates for Degrees are required to be in Priests' Orders and graduates of some incorporated institution or theological school.

The degree of Doctor in Sacred Theology will not be conferred on any candidate until twelve years after he has received the degree of Master of Arts, or Bachelor in Sacred Theology, nor until he has been at least twelve years in Holy Orders.

The Hood of the Bachelor in Sacred Theology is of the Oxford shape, and of black ribbed silk, lined with purple silk.

The Hood of the Doctor in Sacred Theology is of the Oxford shape, and of scarlet cloth, lined with purple silk.

THE BISHOP PADDOCK LECTURESHIP.

This Lectureship was founded in 1880, by Mr. GEORGE A. JARVIS, of Brooklyn, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, moved thereto by gratitude to God for the goodness and mercy that had followed him all the days of his life; and impressed by a deep sense of the good which would, with God's blessing, grow out of an endowment for the encouragement of "the defence and confirmation of the Gospel" by godly and well-learned men.

He named it after his "former beloved pastor and ever-endeared friend, the Right Rev. Benjamin Henry Paddock, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts."

The Lecturer is to be appointed by the Dean of the General Theological Seminary, the Bishop of Massachusetts, the Bishop of Connecticut, and the Bishop of Long Island, and their successors in office, or such of them as may accept such trust, who are designated and constituted "THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT." He must be an ordained minister in good standing of this Church or of some Church in communion with it; and shall deliver, at such time and place as may be required, a Course of Lecture Sermons, in number not less than four, nor more than seven. And no previous Lecturer shall be eligible unless at least seven years shall have intervened between the two courses.

The subjects of the Lectures are to be such as appertain to the defence of the religion of Jesus Christ, as revealed in the Holy Bible and illustrated in the Book of Common Prayer, against the varying errors of the day, whether materialistic, rationalistic, or professedly religious; and also to its defence and confirmation in respect of such central truths as the Trinity, the Atonement, Justification, and the Inspiration of the Word of God; and of such central facts as the Church's divine order and Sacraments, her historical Reformation, and her rights and powers as a pure and national Church. And other subjects may be chosen, if unanimously approved by the Board of Appointment as being both timely and also within the true intent of this Lectureship.

LECTURERS.

1881. The Rt. Rev. J. WILLIAMS, D.D., LL.D., "The English Reformation."
1882. The Rev. JOHN COTTON SMITH, D.D.,*: Relations of Religious Belief and Philosophical Opinions."
1883. The Rev. WM. D. WILSON, D.D., LL.D., L.H.D., "The Methods of Natural Theology Vindicated against Modern Objections."
1884. The Rt. Rev. A. N. LITTLEJOHN, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Long Island, "The Christian Ministry at the close of the Nineteenth Century."
1885. The Right Rev. HENRY C. LAY, D.D., LL. D., Bishop of Easton, "The Rights and Powers of the Particular or National Church."
1886. The Rev. WILLIAM H. PLATT, D.D., LL.D., "The Philosophy of the Supernatural."
1887. The Rev. JOHN H. EGAR, D.D., "The History of Christendom, Ecclesiastical and Political, from Constantine to the Reformation."
1888. The Right Rev. HUGH MILLER THOMPSON, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Mississippi, "Christ's Doctrine of Development."

THE JOHN H. TALMAN FELLOWSHIP.

This Fellowship was founded in 1881, by MISS CAROLINE TALMAN, of New York, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, and called, in memory of her father, "The John H. Talman Fellowship."

The entire income of the endowment, after keeping the Talman room in the Seminary properly furnished, is to be paid to the holder of the Fellowship in quarterly payments, excepting that, during a vacancy in the said Fellowship, it is to be added to the endowment or paid by order of the Dean of the Seminary to some necessitous student thereof, who on Sundays and Holy Days shall assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

This Fellowship may be held for five years, and no longer, by any unmarried Graduate of the Seminary in Holy Orders, who shall be appointed by the Faculty with the approval, or on the nomination of the Rector, if there be one, of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in this city; but such appointment must be renewed from year to year on evidence that the holder of the Fellowship is fulfilling the purpose of the endowment.

The holder of the Fellowship is to have access to the library, admission to all the lectures, and free use of the Talman room, with the understanding that he shall leave the furniture in as good condition as he received it, ordinary wear and tear alone excepted. He must remain unmarried, reside in the Seminary buildings, pursue, under the supervision of the Faculty, such studies as meet their approval, and be subject to be called upon from time to time to give such evidence of his fidelity and proficiency in his studies as the Faculty may require. He shall, if required by the Faculty, devote one hour a day to teaching in the Seminary under their direction; and on Sundays and Saints' days assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

If he shall pursue any profession or employment otherwise than by permission of the Faculty and Standing Committee of the Seminary, or shall fail at any time to comply with its Rules and Regulations, he shall forfeit his right to the benefit of the Fellowship, and may be removed therefrom by a resolution of the Faculty.

APPENDIX.

THE General Theological Seminary was founded in 1817, for the education of Candidates for Holy Orders, as an institution which should "have the united support of the whole Church in these United States, and be under the superintendence and control of the General Convention," and a Board of Trustees representing all the Dioceses.

LOCATION.

The Seminary buildings are situated on Chelsea Square, Ninth Avenue, between Twentieth and Twenty-first Streets. They are built of stone and brick, in the most solid and substantial manner, and will accommodate about one hundred Students with rooms. There is no more healthy location in the city. The advantages which a large city presents for the training of young men for the sacred ministry are not less numerous and important than those which invite hither such large numbers to prepare for the professions of Law and Medicine. They are here brought into contact with the best forms of Church life and work, and are surrounded by influences which broaden their minds, refine their manners, and elevate their characters. Engaging in varied forms of work, which contribute largely to their support, they have, under the direction of wise and faithful pastors, the opportunity of adding to sacred, solid learning, the teachings of acknowledged experience.

ADMISSION.

Persons applying for admission must be Candidates for Holy Orders, with full qualifications, in the Protestant Episcopal Church, or produce satisfactory evidence of religious and moral character, of classical and scientific attainments, of attachment to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of being communicants of the same, and of such qualifications as fit them for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry. For forms of Testimonials and subjects of entrance examination, see second page of cover.

To be admitted to the Middle or Senior Classes, applicants must pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by those classes.

Digitized by Google

Students from other Theological Seminaries of the Church may be admitted on presenting a certificate of honorable dismission and good standing.

Students who have already studied portions of the Seminary Course, or their equivalents, or who are unable to keep up with the regular studies of the classes, may be admitted as Special Students.

There is a Post-Graduate Course open to the Alumni and to graduates of other Theological Seminaries of the Church.

Clergymen can only be received as Special Students or to the Post-Graduate Course.

Seminary Year.

The Seminary year begins on the Wednesday in the Autumnal Ember Week, and ends with the exercises of the Commencement, which are held on the Wednesday after Whitsun Day. There is a suspension of lectures and recitations from Christmas Eve to the Feast of the Epiphany, both inclusive, and from Thursday before Easter to the Saturday after Easter, both inclusive, also on Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day, and on all days of Thanksgiving or Fasting appointed by the Ecclesiastical or Civil authority.

Chapel Services.

There is daily Morning and Evening Prayer, except on Sundays, in the Chapel, throughout the Seminary year, at 9 A.M. and 5.30 P.M. Upon these services each Student is required to attend, unless specially excused by the Dean. The Holy Communion is administered on every Sunday, Thursday, Saint's Day and Festival, at 7 A.M.

Examinations.

The Students are examined by the Professors at the close of each year. These examinations are conducted in the presence of a Committee appointed for that purpose by the Board of Trustees, which Committee is authorized and requested to attend, occasionally, the recitations of the Students during the course of the year.

Testimonials.

At the Annual Commencement, Students who have satisfactorily accomplished the full course of study, receive Testimonials of the same signed by the Dean and Faculty, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. This Testimonial is conferred by the Senior Bishop present at the Commencement.

Degrees.

The Degree of Bachelor in Sacred Theology is awarded only to members of the graduating class who have attained a grade of nine during their Seminary Course.

Rooms and Expenses.

The tuition is free. The charge for board, room, coal, gas, and care of room is two hundred and twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance semi-annually, in September and January. No deduction is made except for absence caused by sickness prolonged for more than a month. Students living out of the Seminary are charged twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance in September. Other expenses of Students are personal, and will vary according to the habits of the individual, from one to three hundred dollars a year. Each Student is required to furnish his own room, and to provide himself with an academical black gown and Oxford cap. There are twenty-seven Scholarships, averaging about one hundred and fifty dollars a year each, to aid necessitous Students.

Library.

The Library occupies the new fire-proof building. It is admirably arranged with a complete Card Catalogue of authors and subjects, so as to render the very valuable collection of books belonging to the Seminary available for consultation and use by the Students. The number of volumes, according to the last report submitted to the Trustees in June, 1888, is 19,815; Pamphlets, 16,118.

It is open daily (Sundays excepted) from ten o'clock A.M. to five o'clock P.M., for the consultation and delivery of books. It is supplied with most of the American and some of the English Church periodicals and papers.

No books can be taken from the Library except by the Professors and Students of the Seminary; but it is accessible for consultation of the books to all persons who may desire the privilege, under the direction of the Librarian.

Copies of Diocesan Journals, and of any pamphlets pertaining to the history of the Church, Dioceses, or Parishes, if sent to the Library, will be preserved with care for future reference.

The Alumni are earnestly requested to send copies of everything they may publish.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

INSTITUTED IN 1883.

THIS course is designed to meet the wants of those who wish to pursue an advanced course of general theological study, or to apply themselves to special subjects of reading and investigation in any of the departments of Theology, or of any question—whether critical, practical, or philosophical —which may engage the attention of Christian scholars or pastors, under the personal advice and direction of the Professors, and with the advantages of the large library of the Seminary.

It is open to our own Alumni, and to graduates of other Theological Schools of the Church, who present testimonials of their fidelity and proficiency in study from the school from which they graduated, and who express the purpose to remain through the year, unless unexpectedly or unavoidably prevented.

The instruction will be given by the Faculty, and by Lecturers who have made a specialty of the subjects which they are invited to discuss. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research, and the results of such work are to be given in Essays which the students are expected to prepare.

These students will be furnished rooms as in the case of undergraduates, and whenever necessary given Scholarships.

For further particulars apply to the Dean.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

The next Seminary year will begin on Wednesday, September 17th, 1890. Applicants for admission should present themselves for examination at Sherred Hall on that day, at 9.30 A.M., provided with pen and ink. If they wish rooms reserved for them, they must send their full names, with name of College from which they graduated and Diocese to which they belong, with their testimonials, to the Dean before that date.

The requirements for admission are as follows :

TESTIMONIAL.

Evidence of having been admitted as a Candidate for Orders ; or,

A Testimonial in the following (or an equivalent) form, signed by one Presbyter and four respectable Laymen, communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

> We, whose names are hereunder written, testify, from our personal knowledge and belief, that.....is pious, sober, and honest ; that he is attached to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and that he is a communicant of the said Church, in good standing ; and do furthermore declare that, in our opinion, he possesses such qualifications as fit him for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry.
>
> Dated,.....18

EXAMINATIONS.

Applicants for admission (unless they desire to be admitted as Special Students) are required by the Statutes to pass a written examination in the following, or their equivalents :

i. S. G. Green's Hand-book to the Grammar of the New Testament, page 167 to Vocabulary ; Religious Tract Society, London.
ii. The Acts of the Apostles in the original.
iii. The Outlines of Ancient Geography ; Hurlbut's Manual of Biblical Geography ; Rand, McNally & Co.
iv. Maclear's Class Books of the Catechism and of the History of the Old and New Testaments.
v. Craik's Outlines of the History of the English Language.
vi. To write in the presence of the Examiners a Composition on an assigned subject.

 These books are kept on sale by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

Unless they present evidence that they have been admitted as Candidates for Priests' Orders, or that they are graduates in Arts of some University or College, in which the learned languages are duly studied, they must also pass a satisfactory examination in the following, or their equivalents :

i. The first book of the Æneid.
ii. The first book of the Anabasis, and the verb elements in Hadley's Greek Grammar.
iii. History—Freeman's General Sketch.

Applicants for admission to the Middle or Senior Classes, except Students with an honorable dismission from another Theological Seminary of the Church, are required, in addition to the above, to pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by the class to which they seek admission.

 Clergymen are not admitted to the Junior, Middle, or Senior Classes.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Candidates for Orders and Clergymen will be admitted to pursue such Special Studies as they may desire to engage in, without being members of any of the three classes ; and the Faculty will award them certificates of proficiency in those departments upon which they have sustained an examination.

POST-GRADUATES.

Alumni of this Seminary, or of any incorporated Theological School of the Church, who wish to pursue a Post-Graduate course, are permitted to reside in the Seminary, with the privilege of having access to the Library and availing themselves of the advantages of the institution, under such rules as the Faculty may prescribe.

Applications for admission, and for further particulars, should be addressed to the Dean, 1 Chelsea Square, New York.

PRIZES.

THE McVICKAR PRIZES.

There are two Annual Prizes of Thirty Dollars and Twenty Dollars, founded in 1850 by the late Rev. John McVickar, D.D., and the late Rev. Henry McVickar, to be awarded by the Executive Committee of the Associate Alumni, among the members of the Senior Class during the Easter recess in each year, under such an arrangement of time and place as may be agreeable to the Faculty of the Seminary, namely:

1. Of Thirty Dollars, being known as the "Greek Alumni Prize," to be tested in open competition, by oral and written examinations (though as far as may be by the pen, after the manner of the English University Examinations for Honors) on the Greek Scriptures generally, including the Septuagint, and if oral, "ad aperturam libri;" also in one or more of the Greek Fathers—such authors being designated, to those competing for the prize, at least six months before.

2. Of Twenty Dollars, to be known as the "Alumni Prize in Ecclesiastical History," the examination in the same to be conducted as above—in part at least by the pen; and to have special reference to the early history and canonical independence of the Church of England, as being "sui juris" in all Ecclesiastical matters, a distinct and independent branch of the Church of CHRIST.

Those intending to compete for the above prizes are to give their names as candidates to the Dean, or other presiding officer, at least a month before the Easter Holidays; and between such only the competition is to be held, and each prize awarded.

The above prizes are to be paid over annually, before the Commencement, by the Treasurer of the Seminary, to the Students to whom they have been respectively awarded by said Committee, as certified by its Chairman; but in case, from any cause, the distribution of the above prizes should not take place, then the interest of the fund is to be paid over to the Dean, or other presiding officer of the Seminary, to be distributed by him, at his discretion, among necessitous and deserving Students.

The names of Students receiving prizes are entered on record in a book kept in the Library for that purpose, entitled "The Alumni Prize Record," and are also entered in the Annual Report made by the Faculty to the Trustees.

THE SEYMOUR PRIZE.

This prize, for the encouragement of extemporaneous preaching, and the committing to memory of certain portions of the Book of Common Prayer, was founded by an unknown Benefactor of the Seminary, in the year 1874, and was named by him, in honor of the Rev. George F. Seymour, D.D., LL.D., then Professor of Ecclesiastical History, "The Seymour Prize."

The Prize, as at present arranged, is a gold watch of the best American manufacture, with the inscription engraved on the inside, "Instant in season, out of season," the name of the prize, the year in which it was gained, and the full name of the person to whom it is awarded.

The competition shall take place every second year, beginning with 1876, on the third Saturday in January, and is open to matriculated Students of the Senior and Middle Classes.

In order to be qualified to contend for this prize, the founder prescribes that the Student must be able to recite from memory the entire service for the burial of the dead, except the rubrics, inasmuch as the clergy are frequently called upon to perform this office when it is impossible to use the book.

The Judges who shall award the prize shall be three in number, Presbyters, not Professors nor Instructors in the Seminary, to be selected by the Dean, or Acting Dean, at least two weeks before the day of competition.

The Judges shall assign the theme to be discussed, in the form of a proposition or text of Scripture, not more than one hour before the exercises begin.

The order in which the speakers are called shall be determined by lot, the Judges drawing the names of the competitors, and calling them in the order in which their names are drawn.

Each competitor, when he has concluded his sermon or address, shall immediately retire from the room where the exercises are held, nor shall he be allowed to be present at any time while his fellow-contestants are speaking. The time allowed the several speakers shall be the same for all, and shall be determined on each occasion by the Judges.

The Judges shall meet immediately after the exercises are ended, and award the prize. In case they decide that no one of the efforts is of sufficient merit to deserve the prize, then the interest which has accrued shall be added to the principal, and go to enlarge the endowment.

THE BISHOP PADDOCK LECTURESHIP.

This Lectureship was founded in 1880, by Mr. GEORGE A. JARVIS, of Brooklyn, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, moved thereto by gratitude to God for the goodness and mercy that had followed him all the days of his life; and impressed by a deep sense of the good which would, with God's blessing, grow out of an endowment for the encouragement of "the defence and confirmation of the Gospel" by godly and well-learned men.

He named it after his "former beloved pastor and ever-endeared friend, the Right Rev. Benjamin Henry Paddock, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts."

The Lecturer is to be appointed by the Dean of the General Theological Seminary, the Bishop of Massachusetts, the Bishop of Connecticut, and the Bishop of Long Island, and their successors in office, or such of them as may accept such trust, who are designated and constituted "THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT." He must be an ordained minister in good standing of this Church, or of some Church in communion with it; and shall deliver, at such time and place as may be required, a Course of Lecture Sermons, in number not less than four, nor more than seven. And no previous Lecturer shall be eligible unless at least seven years shall have intervened between the two courses.

The subjects of the Lectures are to be such as appertain to the defence of the religion of Jesus Christ, as revealed in the Holy Bible and illustrated in the Book of Common Prayer, against the varying errors of the day, whether materialistic, rationalistic, or professedly religious; and also to its defence and confirmation in respect of such central truths as the Trinity, the Atonement, Justification, and the Inspiration of the Word of God; and of such central facts as the Church's divine order and Sacraments, her historical Reformation, and her rights and powers as a pure and national Church. And other subjects may be chosen, if unanimously approved by the Board of Appointment as being both timely and also within the true intent of this Lectureship.

LECTURERS.

THE JOHN H. TALMAN FELLOWSHIP.

This Fellowship was founded in 1881, by MISS CAROLINE TALMAN, of New York, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, and called, in memory of her father, "The John H. Talman Fellowship."

The entire income of the endowment, after keeping the Talman room in the Seminary properly furnished, is to be paid to the holder of the Fellowship in quarterly payments, excepting that, during a vacancy in the said Fellowship, it is to be added to the endowment or paid by order of the Dean of the Seminary to some necessitous student thereof, who on Sundays and Holy Days shall assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

This Fellowship may be held for five years, and no longer, by any unmarried Graduate of the Seminary in Holy Orders, who shall be appointed by the Faculty with the approval, or on the nomination of the Rector, if there be one, of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in this city; but such appointment must be renewed from year to year on evidence that the holder of the Fellowship is fulfilling the purpose of the endowment.

The holder of the Fellowship is to have access to the library, admission to all the lectures, and free use of the Talman room, with the understanding that he shall leave the furniture in as good condition as he received it, ordinary wear and tear alone excepted. He must remain unmarried, reside in the Seminary buildings, pursue, under the supervision of the Faculty, such studies as meet their approval, and be subject to be called upon from time to time to give such evidence of his fidelity and proficiency in his studies as the Faculty may require. He shall, if required by the Faculty, devote one hour a day to teaching in the Seminary under their direction; and on Sundays and Saints' days assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

If he shall pursue any profession or employment otherwise than by permission of the Faculty and Standing Committee of the Seminary, or shall fail at any time to comply with its Rules and Regulations, he shall forfeit his right to the benefit of the Fellowship, and may be removed therefrom by a resolution of the Faculty.

APPENDIX

THE General Theological Seminary was founded in 1817, for the education of Candidates for Holy Orders, as an institution which should "have the united support of the whole Church in these United States, and be under the superintendence and control of the General Convention," and a Board of Trustees representing all the Dioceses.

LOCATION.

The Seminary buildings are situated on Chelsea Square, Ninth Avenue, between Twentieth and Twenty-first Streets. They are built of stone and brick, in the most solid and substantial manner, and will accommodate about one hundred Students with rooms. There is no more healthy location in the city. The advantages which a large city presents for the training of young men for the sacred ministry are not less numerous and important than those which invite hither such large numbers to prepare for the professions of Law and Medicine. They are here brought into contact with the best forms of Church life and work, and are surrounded by influences which broaden their minds, refine their manners, and elevate their characters. Engaging in varied forms of work, which contribute largely to their support, they have, under the direction of wise and faithful pastors, the opportunity of adding to sacred, solid learning, the teachings of acknowledged experience.

ADMISSION.

Persons applying for admission must be Candidates for Holy Orders, with full qualifications, in the Protestant Episcopal Church, or produce satisfactory evidence of religious and moral character, of classical and scientific attainments, of attachment to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of being communicants of the same, and of such qualifications as fit them for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry. For forms of Testimonials and subjects of entrance examination, see second page of cover.

To be admitted to the Middle or Senior Classes, applicants must pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by those classes.

Students from other Theological Seminaries of the Church may be admitted on presenting a certificate of honorable dismission and good standing.

Digitized by Google

Students who have already studied portions of the Seminary Course, or their equivalents, or who are unable to keep up with the regular studies of the classes, may be admitted as Special Students.

There is a Post-Graduate Course open to the Alumni and to graduates of other Theological Seminaries of the Church.

Clergymen can only be received as Special Students or to the Post-Graduate Course.

Seminary Year.

The Seminary year begins on the Wednesday in the Autumnal Ember Week, and ends with the exercises of the Commencement, which are held on the Wednesday after Whitsun Day. There is a suspension of lectures and recitations from Christmas Eve to the Feast of the Epiphany, both inclusive, and from Thursday before Easter to the Saturday after Easter, both inclusive, also on Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day, and on all days of Thanksgiving or Fasting appointed by the Ecclesiastical or Civil authority.

Chapel Services.

There is daily Morning and Evening Prayer, except on Sundays, in the Chapel, throughout the Seminary year, at 9 A.M. and 5.30 P.M. Upon these services each Student is required to attend, unless specially excused by the Dean. The Holy Communion is administered on every Sunday, Thursday, Saint's Day and Festival, at 7 A.M.

In Memoriam.—The Trustees, in perpetual memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, to whom the Seminary owes the chapel, have ordered that its bells be appropriately rung, under the direction of the Dean, on the days when they entered into the rest of Paradise, viz.: on the sixth day of October and the eighteenth day of February in every year.

Examinations.

The Students are examined by the Professors at the close of each year. These examinations are conducted in the presence of a Committee appointed for that purpose by the Board of Trustees, which Committee is authorized and requested to attend, occasionally, the recitations of the Students during the course of the year.

Testimonials.

At the Annual Commencement, Students who have satisfactorily accomplished the full course of study, receive Testimonials of the same signed by the Dean and Faculty, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. This Testimonial is conferred by the Senior Bishop present at the Commencement.

Degrees.

The Faculty recommends for the Degree of Bachelor in Sacred Theology graduating members of the Sénior class whose average grade of marks during their Seminary course has not fallen below nine, and who are deemed otherwise worthy of the reward. Those to whom the degree is thus awarded are required to present to the Dean before the conferring of the degree an original essay in Latin on some subject approved by the Faculty.

Rooms and Expenses.

The tuition is free. The rooms are furnished with the exception of bed-clothing. The charge for board, room, coal, gas, and care of room is two hundred and twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance semi-annually, in September and January. No deduction is made except for absence caused by sickness prolonged for more than a month. Students living out of the Seminary are charged twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance in September. Other expenses of Students are personal, and will vary according to the habits of the individual, from one to three hundred dollars a year. Each Student is required to provide himself with an academical black gown and Oxford cap.

Scholarships.

There are twenty-eight endowed Scholarships, averaging about one hundred and fifty dollars a year each, to aid necessitous Students.

The Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York also gives scholarships of one, two, and three hundred dollars. The amount depending on the grade of the entrance or annual examinations.

Library.

The Library occupies the new fire-proof building. It is admirably arranged with a complete Card Catalogue of authors and subjects, so as to render the very valuable collection of books belonging to the Seminary available for consultation and use by the Students. The number of volumes, according to the last report submitted to the Trustees in June, 1888, is 19,114; Pamphlets, 16,835.

It is open daily (Sundays excepted) from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., for the consultation and delivery of books. It is supplied with most of the American and some of the English Church periodicals and papers.

No books can be taken from the Library except by the Professors and Students of the Seminary; but it is accessible for consultation of the books to all persons who may desire the privilege, under the direction of the Librarian.

Digitized by Google

The students have also the privilege of using the Astor, Lenox, and Columbia College Libraries.

Copies of Diocesan Journals, and of any pamphlets pertaining to the history of the Church, Dioceses, or Parishes, if sent to the Library, will be preserved with care for future reference.

The Alumni are earnestly requested to send copies of everything they may publish.

Post-Graduate Course.—Instituted in 1883.

This course is designed to meet the wants of those who wish to pursue an advanced course of general theological study, or to apply themselves to special subjects of reading and investigation in any of the departments of Theology, or of any question—whether critical, practical, or philosophical—which may engage the attention of Christian scholars or pastors, under the personal advice and direction of the Professors, and with the advantages of the large library of the Seminary and other libraries in the city.

It is open to our own Alumni, and to graduates of other Theological Schools of the Church, who present testimonials of their fidelity and proficiency in study from the school from which they graduated, and who express the purpose to remain through the year, unless unexpectedly or unavoidably prevented.

The instruction will be given by the Faculty, and by Lecturers who have made a specialty of the subjects which they are invited to discuss. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research, and the results of such work are to be given in Essays which the students are expected to prepare.

These students will be furnished rooms as in the case of undergraduates, and whenever necessary given Scholarships.

For further particulars apply to the Dean.

The Association was organized in October, 1832.

It is designed to embrace all the Graduates of the Seminary. Its objects are :—To cherish a spirit of mutual interest and union among its members; to advance the cause of Theological learning and Evangelical truth and piety, and to promote the advantage of the Institution with which it is connected.

The Annual Meeting is held on the day before the Commencement, when an Essay is delivered. A triennial meeting is also held during the Session of the General Convention, when a Sermon is preached before the Alumni.

Essayist, the Rev. M. VAN RENSSELAER, D.D., LL.D. Substitute, the Rev. CHARLES T. SEIBT, D.D.

CATALOGUE OF THE ALUMNI.

[The † designates the Alumni who are deceased. The date after the name of the Alumnus is the year of his decease. The letter R. stands for Rector; the letter M. for Missionary; the letter O. for Officiating; and the letters Ass't. for Assistant Minister. When the Alumnus is deceased the Parish or Post-office opposite his name is either the last, or the principal position which he held during his life.]

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

The next Seminary year will begin on Wednesday, September 18th, 1891. Applicants for admission should present themselves for examination at Sherred Hall on that day, at 9.30 A.M., provided with pen and ink. If they wish rooms reserved for them, they must send their full names, with name of College from which they graduated and Diocese to which they belong, with their testimonials, to the Dean before that date. Except by special arrangement, rooms will not be reserved after the day of the Annual Entrance Examination.

The requirements for admission are as follows:

TESTIMONIAL.

Evidence of having been admitted as a Candidate for Orders; or,

A Testimonial in the following (or an equivalent) form, signed by one Presbyter and four respectable Laymen, communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

> We, whose names are hereunder written, testify, from our personal knowledge and belief, that.....is pious, sober, and honest; that he is attached to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and that he is a communicant of the said Church, in good standing; and do furthermore declare that, in our opinion, he possesses such qualifications as fit him for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry.
>
> Dated,.....18

EXAMINATIONS.

Applicants for admission (unless they desire to be admitted as Special Students) are required by the Statutes to pass a written examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. S. G. Green's Hand-book to the Grammar of the New Testament, page 167 to Vocabulary; Religious Tract Society, London.
ii. The Acts of the Apostles in the original.
iii. The Outlines of Ancient Geography; Hurlbut's Manual of Biblical Geography; Rand, McNally & Co.
iv. Maclear's Class Books of the Catechism and of the History of the Old and New Testaments.
v. Craik's Outlines of the History of the English Language.
vi. To write in the presence of the Examiners a Composition on an assigned subject.

 These books are kept on sale by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

Unless they present evidence that they have been admitted as Candidates for Priests' Orders, or that they are graduates in Arts of some University or College, in which the learned languages are duly studied, they must also pass a satisfactory examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. The first book of the Æneid.
ii. The first book of the Anabasis, and the verb elements in Hadley's Greek Grammar.
iii. History—Freeman's General Sketch.

Applicants for admission to the Middle or Senior Classes, except Students with an honorable dismission from another Theological Seminary of the Church, are required, in addition to the above, to pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by the class to which they seek admission.

 Clergymen are not admitted to the Junior, Middle, or Senior Classes.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Clergymen and Candidates for Orders may be admitted to pursue such Special Studies as they may desire to engage in, without being members of any of the three classes. In the case of Candidates for Orders this privilege can be granted only to those who have pursued studies equivalent to those in the regular course they wish to omit, or who hold a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the studies of the regular classes.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

Open to the Alumni of this Seminary, or of any incorporated Theological School of the Church, vide page 33 of this Catalogue.

Applications for admission, and for further particulars, should be addressed to the Dean, 1 Chelsea Square, New York.

PRIZES.

THE McVICKAR PRIZES.

There are two Annual Prizes of Thirty Dollars and Twenty Dollars, founded in 1850 by the late Rev. John McVickar, D.D., and the late Rev. Henry McVickar, to be awarded by the Executive Committee of the Associate Alumni, among the members of the Senior Class during the Easter recess in each year, under such an arrangement of time and place as may be agreeable to the Faculty of the Seminary, namely:

1. Of Thirty Dollars, being known as the "Greek Alumni Prize," to be tested in open competition, by oral and written examinations (though as far as may be by the pen, after the manner of the English University Examinations for Honors) on the Greek Scriptures generally, including the Septuagint, and if oral, "ad aperturam libri;" also in one or more of the Greek Fathers—such authors being designated, to those competing for the prize, at least six months before.

2. Of Twenty Dollars, to be known as the "Alumni Prize in Ecclesiastical History," the examination in the same to be conducted as above—in part at least by the pen; and to have special reference to the early history and canonical independence of the Church of England, as being "sui juris" in all Ecclesiastical matters, a distinct and independent branch of the Church of CHRIST.

Those intending to compete for the above prizes are to give their names as candidates to the Dean, or other presiding officer, at least a month before the Easter Holidays; and between such only the competition is to be held, and each prize awarded.

The above prizes are to be paid over annually, before the Commencement, by the Treasurer of the Seminary, to the Students to whom they have been respectively awarded by said Committee, as certified by its Chairman; but in case, from any cause, the distribution of the above prizes should not take place, then the interest of the fund is to be paid over to the Dean, or other presiding officer of the Seminary, to be distributed by him, at his discretion, among necessitous and deserving Students.

The names of Students receiving prizes are entered on record in a book kept in the Library for that purpose, entitled "The Alumni Prize Record," and are also entered in the Annual Report made by the Faculty to the Trustees.

THE SEYMOUR PRIZE.

This prize, for the encouragement of extemporaneous preaching, and the committing to memory of certain portions of the Book of Common Prayer, was founded by an unknown Benefactor of the Seminary, in the year 1874, and was named by him, in honor of the Rev. George F. Seymour, D.D., LL.D., then Professor of Ecclesiastical History, "The Seymour Prize."

The Prize, as at present arranged, is a gold watch of the best American manufacture, with the inscription engraved on the inside, "Instant in season, out of season," the name of the prize, the year in which it was gained, and the full name of the person to whom it is awarded.

The competition shall take place every second year, beginning with 1876, on the third Saturday in January, and is open to matriculated Students of the Senior and Middle Classes.

In order to be qualified to contend for this prize, the founder prescribed that the Student must be able to recite from memory the entire service for the burial of the dead, except the rubrics, inasmuch as the clergy are frequently called upon to perform this office when it is impossible to use the book.

The Judges who shall award the prize shall be three in number, Presbyters, not Professors nor Instructors in the Seminary, to be selected by the Dean, or Acting Dean, at least two weeks before the day of competition.

The Judges shall assign the theme to be discussed, in the form of a proposition or text of Scripture, not more than one hour before the exercises begin.

The order in which the speakers are called shall be determined by lot, he Judges drawing the names of the competitors, and calling them in the order in which their names are drawn.

Each competitor, when he has concluded his sermon or address, shall immediately retire from the room where the exercises are held, nor shall he be allowed to be present at any time while his fellow-contestants are speaking. The time allowed the several speakers shall be the same for all, and shall be determined on each occasion by the Judges.

The Judges shall meet immediately after the exercises are ended, and award the prize. In case they decide that no one of the efforts is of sufficient merit to deserve the prize, then the interest which has accrued shall be added to the principal, and go to enlarge the endowment.

THE PIERRE JAY PRIZE.

Miss Elizabeth Clarkson Jay provided five annual prizes of $100 each, to be given to the student of the Seminary who writes the best essay on "The Motives for Foreign Missions." The essays are to be handed to the Dean before January 1st in each year. The Judges are to be the Dean of the Seminary, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L., and the Hon. Seth Low, LL.D.

THE BISHOP PADDOCK LECTURESHIP.

This Lectureship was founded in 1880, by Mr. GEORGE A. JARVIS, of Brooklyn, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, moved thereto by gratitude to God for the goodness and mercy that had followed him all the days of his life; and impressed by a deep sense of the good which would, with God's blessing, grow out of an endowment for the encouragement of "the defence and confirmation of the Gospel" by godly and well-learned men.

He named it after his former beloved pastor and ever-endeared friend, the Right Rev. Benjamin Henry Paddock, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts.

The Lecturer is to be appointed by the Dean of the General Theological Seminary, the Bishop of Massachusetts, the Bishop of Connecticut, and the Bishop of Long Island, and their successors in office, or such of them as may accept such trust, who are designated and constituted "THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT." He must be an ordained minister in good standing of this Church, or of some Church in communion with it; and shall deliver, at such time and place as may be required, a Course of Lecture Sermons, in number not less than four, nor more than seven. And no previous Lecturer shall be eligible unless at least seven years shall have intervened between the two courses.

LECTURERS.

FELLOWSHIPS.

THE JOHN H. TALMAN FELLOWSHIP.

This Fellowship was founded in 1881, by MISS CAROLINE TALMAN, of New York, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, and called, in memory of her father, "The John H. Talman Fellowship."

The entire income of the endowment, after keeping the Talman room in the Seminary properly furnished, is to be paid to the holder of the Fellowship in quarterly payments, excepting that, during a vacancy in the said Fellowship, it is to be added to the endowment or paid by order of the Dean of the Seminary to some necessitous student thereof, who on Sundays and Holy Days shall assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

This Fellowship may be held for five years, and no longer, by any unmarried Graduate of the Seminary in Holy Orders, who shall be appointed by the Faculty with the approval, or on the nomination of the Rector, if there be one, of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in this city; but such appointment must be renewed from year to year on evidence that the holder of the Fellowship is fulfilling the purpose of the endowment.

The holder of the Fellowship is to have access to the library, admission to all the lectures, and free use of the Talman room, with the understanding that he shall leave the furniture in as good condition as he received it, ordinary wear and tear alone excepted. He must remain unmarried, reside in the Seminary buildings, pursue, under the supervision of the Faculty, such studies as meet their approval, and be subject to be called upon from time to time to give such evidence of his fidelity and proficiency in his studies as the Faculty may require. He shall, if required by the Faculty, devote one hour a day to teaching in the Seminary under their direction; and on Sundays and Saints' days assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

If he shall pursue any profession or employment otherwise than by permission of the Faculty and Standing Committee of the Seminary, or shall fail at any time to comply with its Rules and Regulations, he shall forfeit his right to the benefit of the Fellowship, and may be removed therefrom by a resolution of the Faculty.

THE FACULTY FELLOWSHIP.

The income of this Fellowship is one thousand dollars per annum. The appointment is in the hands of the Faculty.

The incumbent must be in Holy Orders, unmarried, and an Alumnus of this Seminary, or have received the degree of Master of Arts from a duly incorporated College or University. He has free use of the Library, and admission to all the lectures of the Seminary.

He is required to reside in the Seminary buildings; to board in the Refectory and preside at meals in the absence of the Dean or a member of the Faculty; to attend the Chapel services, rendering such assistance as the Dean may require; and to give at least one hour a day, at stated time and place, under the direction of the Faculty, to the assistance of such students as may need help in their studies. He cannot undertake Clerical duty outside of the Seminary without the consent of the Faculty.

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The object of this Society is to gain information concerning the Propagation of the Gospel, and especially of the Missions of the Church; and so to further a missionary spirit among the Students.

It holds monthly meetings, at each of which an original sketch of some missionary character is read by one of the students, followed by a discussion of some missionary topic.

APPENDIX.

THE General Theological Seminary was founded in 1817, for the education of Candidates for Holy Orders, as an institution which should "have the united support of the whole Church in these United States, and be under the superintendence and control of the General Convention," and a Board of Trustees representing all the Dioceses.

LOCATION.

The Seminary buildings are situated on Chelsea Square, bounded by Ninth and Tenth Avenues, between Twentieth and Twenty-first Streets. They are built of stone and brick, in the most solid and substantial manner, and will accommodate one hundred and seventeen Students with rooms. There is no more healthy location in the city. The advantages which a large city presents for the training of young men for the sacred ministry are not less numerous and important than those which invite hither such large numbers to prepare for the professions of Law and Medicine. They are here brought into contact with the best forms of Church life and work, and are surrounded by influences which broaden their minds, refine their manners, and elevate their characters. Engaging in varied forms of work, which contribute largely to their support, they have, under the direction of wise and faithful pastors, the opportunity of adding to sacred, solid learning, the teachings of acknowledged experience.

ADMISSION.

Persons applying for admission must be Candidates for Holy Orders, with full qualifications, in the Protestant Episcopal Church, or produce satisfactory evidence of religious and moral character, of classical and scientific attainments, of attachment to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of being communicants of the same, and of such qualifications as fit them for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry. For forms of Testimonials and subjects of entrance examination, see second page of cover.

To be admitted to the Middle or Senior Classes, applicants must pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by those classes.

Students from other Theological Seminaries of the Church may be admitted on presenting a certificate of honorable dismission and good standing.

Digitized by Google

Students who have already studied portions of the Seminary Course, or their equivalents, or who have a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the regular studies of the classes, may be admitted as Special Students.

There is a Post-Graduate Course open to the Alumni and to graduates of other Theological Seminaries of the Church.

Clergymen can only be received as Special Students or to the Post-Graduate Course.

Seminary Year.

The Seminary year begins on the Wednesday in the Autumnal Ember Week, and ends with the exercises of the Commencement, which are held on the Wednesday after Whitsun Day. There is a suspension of lectures and recitations from Christmas Eve to the Feast of the Epiphany, both inclusive, and from Thursday before Easter to the Saturday after Easter, both inclusive, also on Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day, and on all days of Thanksgiving or Fasting appointed by the Ecclesiastical or Civil authority.

Chapel Services.

The Morning Prayer is said at 9 A.M., every day except on Sundays, and the Evening Prayer at 5.30 P.M., every day throughout the Seminary year. Upon these services each Student is required to attend, unless specially excused by the Dean. The Holy Communion is administered on every Sunday, Thursday, Saint's Day and Holy Day, at 7 A.M.

In Memoriam.—The Trustees, in perpetual memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, to whom the Seminary owes the chapel, have ordered that its bells be appropriately rung, under the direction of the Dean, on the days when they entered into the rest of Paradise, viz.: on the sixth day of October and the eighteenth day of February in every year.

Examinations.

The Students are examined by the Professors at the close of each year. These examinations are conducted in the presence of a Committee appointed for that purpose by the Board of Trustees, which Committee is authorized and requested to attend, occasionally, the recitations of the Students during the course of the year.

Testimonials.

At the Annual Commencement, Students who have satisfactorily accomplished the full course of study, receive Testimonials of the same signed by the Dean and Faculty, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. This Testimonial is conferred by the Senior Bishop present at the Commencement.

Degrees.

The Faculty recommends for the Degree of Bachelor in Sacred Theology graduating members of the Senior class whose average grade of marks during their Seminary course has not fallen below nine, and who are deemed otherwise worthy of the reward.

Scholarships.

There are twenty-seven endowed Scholarships, averaging about one hundred and sixty dollars a year each, to aid necessitous Students.

The Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York also gives annual scholarships of one, two, and three hundred dollars, the amount depending on the grade of the entrance or annual examinations. Applications for these scholarships should be made, at the beginning of each year, to the Superintendent of the Society, the Rev. Prof. Oliver.

Library.

The Library occupies the new fire-proof building. It is admirably arranged with a complete Card Catalogue of authors and subjects, so as to render the very valuable collection of books belonging to the Seminary available for consultation and use by the Students. The number of volumes, according to the last report submitted to the Trustees in May, 1890, was 20,242; Pamphlets, 17,120.

It is open daily (Sundays excepted) from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., for the consultation and delivery of books. It is supplied with most of the American and some of the English Church periodicals and papers.

No books can be taken from the Library except by the Professors and Students of the Seminary; but it is accessible for consultation of the books to all persons who may desire the privilege, under the direction of the Librarian.

The students have also the privilege of using the Astor, Lenox, Columbia College, and New York Historical Society Libraries.

⁂ Copies of Diocesan Journals, and of any pamphlets pertaining to the history of the Church, Dioceses, or Parishes, if sent to the Library, will be preserved with care for future reference.

⁂ The Alumni are earnestly requested to send copies of everything they may publish.

Special Lectures.

The Dean has the privilege of nominating any Student of the Seminary to the right of attending the lectures of Columbia College on Political

Digitized by Google

Economy and Sociology, on the Semitic Languages, Philosophy and Ethics, without the payment of fees.

Post-Graduate Course.—Instituted in 1883.

This course is designed to meet the wants of those who wish to pursue an advanced course of general theological study, or to apply themselves to special subjects of reading and investigation in any of the departments of Theology, or of any question—whether critical, practical, or philosophical —which may engage the attention of Christian scholars or pastors, under the personal advice and direction of the Professors, and with the advantages of the large library of the Seminary and other libraries in the city.

It is open to our own Alumni, and to graduates of other Theological Schools of the Church, who present testimonials of their fidelity and proficiency in study from the school from which they graduated, and who express the purpose to remain through the year, unless unexpectedly or unavoidably prevented.

The instruction will be given by the Faculty, and by Lecturers who have made a specialty of the subjects which they are invited to discuss. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research, and the results of such work are to be given in Essays which the students are expected to prepare.

These students will be, whenever necessary, given Scholarships, and permitted to reside in the Seminary buildings under the same rules, with the exception of attendance upon lectures, as other students. The Library and certain lectures of Columbia College are open to them free of charge.

Rooms and Expenses.

The tuition is free. The rooms are furnished with the exception of bed-clothing. The charge for board, room, coal, gas, and care of room is two hundred and twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance semi-annually, in September and January. No deduction is made except for absence caused by sickness prolonged for more than a month. Students living out of the Seminary are charged twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance in September. Other expenses of Students are personal, and will vary according to the habits of the individual, from one to three hundred dollars a year. Each Student is required to provide himself with an academical black gown and Oxford cap.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

The next Seminary year will begin on Wednesday, September 21st, 1892. Applicants for admission should present themselves for examination at Sherred Hall on that day, at 9.30 A.M., provided with pen and ink. If they wish rooms reserved for them, they must send their full names, with name of College from which they graduated and Diocese to which they belong, with their testimonials, to the Dean before that date. Except by special arrangement, rooms will not be reserved after the day of the Annual Entrance Examination.

The requirements for admission are as follows:

TESTIMONIAL.

Evidence of having been admitted as a Candidate for Orders; or,

A Testimonial in the following (or an equivalent) form, signed by one Presbyter and four respectable Laymen, communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

> We, whose names are hereunder written, testify, from our personal knowledge and belief, that.....is pious, sober, and honest; that he is attached to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and that he is a communicant of the said Church, in good standing; and do furthermore declare that, in our opinion, he possesses such qualifications as fit him for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry.
>
> Dated,.....18

EXAMINATIONS.

Applicants for admission (unless they desire to be admitted as Special Students) are required by the Statutes to pass a written examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. S. G. Green's Hand-book to the Grammar of the New Testament, page 167 to Vocabulary; Religious Tract Society, London.
ii. The Acts of the Apostles in the original.
iii. The Outlines of Ancient Geography; Hurlbut's Manual of Biblical Geography; Rand, McNally & Co.
iv. Maclear's Class Books of the Catechism and of the History of the Old and New Testaments.
v. Craik's Outlines of the History of the English Language.
vi. To write in the presence of the Examiners a Composition on an assigned subject.

 These books are kept on sale by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

Unless they present evidence that they have been admitted as Candidates for Priests' Orders, or that they are graduates in Arts of some University or College, in which the learned languages are duly studied, they must also pass a satisfactory examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. The first book of the Æneid.
ii. The first book of the Anabasis, and the verb elements in Hadley's Greek Grammar.
iii. History—Freeman's General Sketch.

Applicants for admission to the Middle or Senior Classes, except Students with an honorable dismission from another Theological Seminary of the Church, are required, in addition to the above, to pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by the class to which they seek admission.

 Clergymen are not admitted to the Junior, Middle, or Senior Classes.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Clergymen and Candidates for Orders may be admitted to pursue such Special Studies as they may desire to engage in, without being members of any of the three classes. In the case of Candidates for Orders this privilege can be granted only to those who have pursued studies equivalent to those in the regular course they wish to omit, or who hold a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the studies of the regular classes.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

Open to the Alumni of this Seminary, or of any incorporated Theological School of the Church, vide page 33 of this Catalogue.

Applications for admission, and for further particulars, should be addressed to the Dean, 1 Chelsea Square, New York.

PRIZES.

THE McVICKAR PRIZES.

There are two Annual Prizes of Thirty Dollars and Twenty Dollars, founded in 1850 by the late Rev. John McVickar, D.D., and the late Rev. Henry McVickar, to be awarded by the Executive Committee of the Associate Alumni, among the members of the Senior Class during the Easter recess in each year, under such an arrangement of time and place as may be agreeable to the Faculty of the Seminary, namely:

1. Of Thirty Dollars, being known as the "Greek Alumni Prize," to be tested in open competition, by oral and written examinations (though as far as may be by the pen, after the manner of the English University Examinations for Honors) on the Greek Scriptures generally, including the Septuagint, and if oral, "ad aperturam libri;" also in one or more of the Greek Fathers—such authors being designated, to those competing for the prize, at least six months before.

2. Of Twenty Dollars, to be known as the "Alumni Prize in Ecclesiastical History," the examination in the same to be conducted as above—in part at least by the pen; and to have special reference to the early history and canonical independence of the Church of England, as being "sui juris" in all Ecclesiastical matters, a distinct and independent branch of the Church of CHRIST.

Those intending to compete for the above prizes are to give their names as candidates to the Dean, or other presiding officer, at least a month before the Easter Holidays; and between such only the competition is to be held, and each prize awarded.

The above prizes are to be paid over annually, before the Commencement, by the Treasurer of the Seminary, to the Students to whom they have been respectively awarded by said Committee, as certified by its Chairman; but in case, from any cause, the distribution of the above prizes should not take place, then the interest of the fund is to be paid over to the Dean, or other presiding officer of the Seminary, to be distributed by him, at his discretion, among necessitous and deserving Students.

The names of Students receiving prizes are entered on record in a book kept in the Library for that purpose, entitled "The Alumni Prize Record," and are also entered in the Annual Report made by the Faculty to the Trustees.

THE SEYMOUR PRIZE.

This prize, for the encouragement of extemporaneous preaching, and the committing to memory of certain portions of the Book of Common Prayer, was founded by an unknown Benefactor of the Seminary, in the year 1874, and was named by him, in honor of the Rev. George F. Seymour, D.D., LL.D., then Professor of Ecclesiastical History, "The Seymour Prize."

The Prize, as at present arranged, is a gold watch of the best American manufacture, with the inscription engraved on the inside, "Instant in season, out of season," the name of the prize, the year in which it was gained, and the full name of the person to whom it is awarded.

The competition shall take place every second year, beginning with 1876, on the third Saturday in January, and is open to matriculated Students of the Senior and Middle Classes.

In order to be qualified to contend for this prize, the founder prescribed that the Student must be able to recite from memory the entire service for the burial of the dead, except the rubrics, inasmuch as the clergy are frequently called upon to perform this office when it is impossible to use the book.

The Judges who shall award the prize shall be three in number, Presbyters, not Professors nor Instructors in the Seminary, to be selected by the Dean, or Acting Dean, at least two weeks before the day of competition.

The Judges shall assign the theme to be discussed, in the form of a proposition or text of Scripture, not more than one hour before the exercises begin.

The order in which the speakers are called shall be determined by lot, the Judges drawing the names of the competitors, and calling them in the order in which their names are drawn.

Each competitor, when he has concluded his sermon or address, shall immediately retire from the room where the exercises are held, nor shall he be allowed to be present at any time while his fellow-contestants are speaking. The time allowed the several speakers shall be the same for all, and shall be determined on each occasion by the Judges.

The Judges shall meet immediately after the exercises are ended, and award the prize. In case they decide that no one of the efforts is of sufficient merit to deserve the prize, then the interest which has accrued shall be added to the principal, and go to enlarge the endowment.

THE PIERRE JAY PRIZE.

Miss Elizabeth Clarkson Jay provided five annual prizes of $100 each, to be given to the student of the Seminary who writes the best essay on "The Motives for Foreign Missions." The essays are to be handed to the Dean before January 1st in each year. The Judges are to be the Dean of the Seminary, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L., and the Hon. Seth Low, LL.D.

DEGREES.

The Faculty has prescribed the following as the subjects for the Examinations for degrees, until further notice.

(The Examinations to be written or oral as the Faculty shall determine.)

Bachelor in Sacred Theology.

The Examination for this Degree will be on the following subjects:

I.—Exegesis.

The first twenty-five chapters of Isaiah, the Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, and the Epistle to the Romans—all in the original, with Exegesis of such portions as may be required.

The Canon of the Old and New Testaments, and contents of both.

II.—Ecclesiastical History.

History of the Christian Church to the close of the second Council of Nice.

History of the Church of England.

III.—Systematic Divinity.

Articles of the Apostles' Creed. The doctrine of the Sacraments. Soteriology.

IV.—Apologetics.

V.—Liturgics.

VI.—Ecclesiastical Polity and Law.

N. B. The following works are recommended:

I. Delitzsch on Isaiah—Keil's Introduction to the Old Testament—Westcott on the Canon—Wordsworth's Commentary.

II. Robertson's Church History—Bright's Early English Church.

III. Pearson on the Creed—Martensen's Christian Dogmatics, or Owen's Dogmatic Theology.

IV. Christlieb's Modern Doubt and Christian Belief.

V. Procter on the Book of Common Prayer—Blunt's Annotated Prayer Book—Freeman's Principles of Divine Service.

THE BISHOP PADDOCK LECTURESHIP.

This Lectureship was founded in 1880, by Mr. GEORGE A. JARVIS, of Brooklyn, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, moved thereto by gratitude to God for the goodness and mercy that had followed him all the days of his life; and impressed by a deep sense of the good which would, with God's blessing, grow out of an endowment for the encouragement of "the defence and confirmation of the Gospel" by godly and well-learned men.

He named it after his former beloved pastor and ever-endeared friend, the Right Rev. Benjamin Henry Paddock, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts.

The Lecturer is to be appointed by the Dean of the General Theological Seminary, the Bishop of Massachusetts, the Bishop of Connecticut, and the Bishop of Long Island, and their successors in office, or such of them as may accept such trust, who are designated and constituted "THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT." He must be an ordained minister in good standing of this Church, or of some Church in communion with it; and shall deliver, at such time and place as may be required, a Course of Lecture Sermons, in number not less than four, nor more than seven. And no previous Lecturer shall be eligible unless at least seven years shall have intervened between the two courses.

The subjects of the Lectures are to be such as appertain to the defence of the religion of Jesus Christ, as revealed in the Holy Bible and illustrated in the Book of Common Prayer, against the varying errors of the day, whether materialistic, rationalistic, or professedly religious; and also to its defence and confirmation in respect of such central truths as the Trinity, the Atonement, Justification, and the Inspiration of the Word of God; and of such central facts as the Church's divine order and Sacraments, her historical Reformation, and her rights and powers as a pure and national Church. And other subjects may be chosen, if unanimously approved by the Board of Appointment as being both timely and also within the true intent of this Lectureship.

FELLOWSHIPS.

THE JOHN H. TALMAN FELLOWSHIP.

This Fellowship was founded in 1881, by MISS CAROLINE TALMAN, of New York, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, and called, in memory of her father, "The John H. Talman Fellowship."

The entire income of the endowment, after keeping the Talman room in the Seminary properly furnished, is to be paid to the holder of the Fellowship in quarterly payments, excepting that, during a vacancy in the said Fellowship, it is to be added to the endowment or paid by order of the Dean of the Seminary to some necessitous student thereof, who on Sundays and Holy Days shall assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

This Fellowship may be held for five years, and no longer, by any unmarried Graduate of the Seminary in Holy Orders, who shall be appointed by the Faculty with the approval, or on the nomination of the Rector, if there be one, of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in this city; but such appointment must be renewed from year to year on evidence that the holder of the Fellowship is fulfilling the purpose of the endowment.

The holder of the Fellowship is to have access to the library, admission to all the lectures, and free use of the Talman room, with the understanding that he shall leave the furniture in as good condition as he received it, ordinary wear and tear alone excepted. He must remain unmarried, reside in the Seminary buildings, pursue, under the supervision of the Faculty, such studies as meet their approval, and be subject to be called upon from time to time to give such evidence of his fidelity and proficiency in his studies as the Faculty may require. He shall, if required by the Faculty, devote one hour a day to teaching in the Seminary under their direction; and on Sundays and Saints' days assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

If he shall pursue any profession or employment otherwise than by permission of the Faculty and Standing Committee of the Seminary, or shall fail at any time to comply with its Rules and Regulations, he shall forfeit his right to the benefit of the Fellowship, and may be removed therefrom by a resolution of the Faculty.

THE FACULTY FELLOWSHIP.

The income of this Fellowship is one thousand dollars per annum. The appointment is in the hands of the Faculty.

The incumbent must be in Holy Orders, unmarried, and an Alumnus of this Seminary, or have received the degree of Master of Arts from a duly incorporated College or University. He has free use of the Library, and admission to all the lectures of the Seminary.

He is required to reside in the Seminary buildings; to board in the Refectory and preside at meals in the absence of the Dean or a member of the Faculty; to attend the Chapel services, rendering such assistance as the Dean may require; and to give at least one hour a day, at stated time and place, under the direction of the Faculty, to the assistance of such students as may need help in their studies. He cannot undertake Clerical duty outside of the Seminary without the consent of the Faculty.

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The object of this Society is to gain information concerning the Propagation of the Gospel, and especially of the Missions of the Church; and so to further a missionary spirit among the Students.

It holds monthly meetings, at each of which an original sketch of some missionary character is read by one of the students, followed by a discussion of some missionary topic.

APPENDIX.

THE General Theological Seminary was founded in 1817, for the education of Candidates for Holy Orders, as an institution which should "have the united support of the whole Church in these United States, and be under the superintendence and control of the General Convention," and a Board of Trustees representing all the Dioceses.

LOCATION.

The Seminary buildings are situated on Chelsea Square, bounded by Ninth and Tenth Avenues, between Twentieth and Twenty-first Streets. They are built of stone and brick, in the most solid and substantial manner, and will accommodate one hundred and seventeen Students with rooms. There is no more healthy location in the city. The advantages which a large city presents for the training of young men for the sacred ministry are not less numerous and important than those which invite hither such large numbers to prepare for the professions of Law and Medicine. They are here brought into contact with the best forms of Church life and work, and are surrounded by influences which broaden their minds, refine their manners, and elevate their characters. Engaging in varied forms of work, which contribute largely to their support, they have, under the direction of wise and faithful pastors, the opportunity of adding to sacred, solid learning, the teachings of acknowledged experience.

ADMISSION.

Persons applying for admission must be Candidates for Holy Orders, with full qualifications, in the Protestant Episcopal Church, or produce satisfactory evidence of religious and moral character, of classical and scientific attainments, of attachment to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of being communicants of the same, and of such qualifications as fit them for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry. For forms of Testimonials and subjects of entrance examination, see second page of cover.

To be admitted to the Middle or Senior Classes, applicants must pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by those classes.

Students from other Theological Seminaries of the Church may be admitted on presenting a certificate of honorable dismission and good standing.

Digitized by Google

Students who have already studied portions of the Seminary Course, or their equivalents, or who have a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the regular studies of the classes, may be admitted as Special Students.

There is a Post-Graduate Course open to the Alumni and to graduates of other Theological Seminaries of the Church.

Clergymen can only be received as Special Students or to the Post-Graduate Course.

Seminary Year.

The Seminary year begins on the Wednesday in the Autumnal Ember Week, and ends with the exercises of the Commencement, which are held on the Wednesday after Whitsun Day. There is a suspension of lectures and recitations from Christmas Eve to the Feast of the Epiphany, both inclusive, and from Thursday before Easter to the Saturday after Easter, both inclusive, also on Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day, and on all days of Thanksgiving or Fasting appointed by the Ecclesiastical or Civil authority.

Chapel Services.

The Morning Prayer is said at 9 A.M., every day except on Sundays, and the Evening Prayer at 5.30 P.M., every day throughout the Seminary year. Upon these services each Student is required to attend, unless specially excused by the Dean. The Holy Communion is administered on every Sunday, Thursday, Saint's Day and Holy Day, at 7 A.M.

In Memoriam.—The Trustees, in perpetual memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, to whom the Seminary owes the chapel, have ordered that its bells be appropriately rung, under the direction of the Dean, on the days when they entered into the rest of Paradise, viz.: on the sixth day of October and the eighteenth day of February in every year.

Examinations.

The Students are examined by the Professors at the close of each year. These examinations are conducted in the presence of a Committee appointed for that purpose by the Board of Trustees, which Committee is authorized and requested to attend, occasionally, the recitations of the Students during the course of the year.

Testimonials.

At the Annual Commencement, Students who have satisfactorily accomplished the full course of study, receive Testimonials of the same signed by the Dean and Faculty, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. This Testimonial is conferred by the Senior Bishop present at the Commencement.

Degrees.

The Faculty recommends for the Degree of Bachelor in Sacred Theology graduating members of the Senior class whose average grade of marks during their Seminary course has not fallen below nine, and who are deemed otherwise worthy of the reward.

Scholarships.

There are twenty-seven endowed Scholarships, averaging about one hundred and sixty dollars a year each, to aid necessitous Students.

The Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York also gives annual scholarships of one, two, and three hundred dollars, the amount depending on the grade of the entrance or annual examinations. Applications for these scholarships should be made, at the beginning of each year, to the Superintendent of the Society, the Rev. Prof. Oliver.

Library.

The Library occupies the new fire-proof building, Hobart Hall. It is admirably arranged with a complete Card Catalogue of authors and subjects, so as to render the very valuable collection of books belonging to the Seminary available for consultation and use by the Students. The number of volumes, according to the last report submitted to the Trustees in May, 1891, was 21,026.

It is open daily (Sundays excepted) from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., for the consultation and delivery of books. It is supplied with most of the American and some of the English Church periodicals and papers.

No books can be taken from the Library except by the Professors and Students of the Seminary; but it is accessible for consultation of the books to all persons who may desire the privilege, under the direction of the Librarian.

The students have also the privilege of using the Astor, Lenox, Columbia College, and New York Historical Society Libraries.

⁂ Copies of Diocesan Journals, and of any pamphlets pertaining to the history of the Church, Dioceses, or Parishes, if sent to the Library, will be preserved with care for future reference.

⁂ The Alumni are earnestly requested to send copies of everything they may publish.

Special Lectures.

The Dean has the privilege of nominating any Student of the Seminary to the right of attending the lectures of Columbia College on Political Economy and Sociology, on the Semitic Languages, Philosophy and Ethics, without the payment of fees.

Post-Graduate Course.—Instituted in 1883.

This course is designed to meet the wants of those who wish to pursue an advanced course of general theological study, or to apply themselves to special subjects of reading and investigation in any of the departments of Theology, or of any question—whether critical, practical, or philosophical—which may engage the attention of Christian scholars or pastors, under the personal advice and direction of the Professors, and with the advantages of the large library of the Seminary and other libraries in the city.

It is open to our own Alumni, and to graduates of other Theological Schools of the Church, who present testimonials of their fidelity and proficiency in study from the school from which they graduated, and who express the purpose to remain through the year, unless unexpectedly or unavoidably prevented.

The instruction will be given by the Faculty, and by Lecturers who have made a specialty of the subjects which they are invited to discuss. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research, and the results of such work are to be given in Essays which the students are expected to prepare.

These students will be, whenever necessary, given Scholarships, and permitted to reside in the Seminary buildings under the same rules, with the exception of attendance upon lectures, as other students. The Library and certain lectures of Columbia College are open to them free of charge.

Rooms and Expenses.

The tuition is free. The rooms are furnished with the exception of bed-clothing. The charge for board, room, coal, gas, and care of room is two hundred and twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance semi-annually, in September and January. No deduction is made except for absence caused by sickness prolonged for more than a month. Students living out of the Seminary are charged twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance in September. Other expenses of Students are personal, and will vary according to the habits of the individual, from one to three hundred dollars a year. Each Student is required to provide himself with an academical black gown and Oxford cap.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

The next Seminary year will begin on Wednesday, September 20th, 1893. Applicants for admission should present themselves for examination at Sherred Hall on that day, at 9.30 A.M., provided with pen and ink. If they wish rooms reserved for them, they must send their full names, with name of College from which they graduated and Diocese to which they belong, with their testimonials, to the Dean before that date. Except by special arrangement, rooms will not be reserved after the day of the Annual Entrance Examination.

The requirements for admission are as follows:

TESTIMONIAL.

Evidence for having been admitted as a Candidate for Orders; or,

A Testimonial in the following (or an equivalent) form, signed by one Presbyter and four respectable Laymen, communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

> We, whose names are hereunder written, testify, from our personal knowledge and belief, that.....is pious, sober, and honest; that he is attached to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and that he is a communicant of the said Church, in good standing; and do furthermore declare that, in our opinion, he possesses such qualifications as fit him for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry.
>
> Dated, ..... 18

EXAMINATIONS.

Applicants for admission (unless they desire to be admitted as Special Students) are required by the Statutes to pass a written examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. S. G. Green's Hand-book to the Grammar of the New Testament, page 167 to Vocabulary; Religious Tract Society, London.
ii. The acts of the Apostles in the original.
iii. The Outlines of Ancient Geography; Hurlbut's Manual of Biblical Geography; Rand, McNally & Co.
iv. Maclear's Class Books of the Catechism and of the History of the Old and New Testaments.
v. Craik's Outlines of the History of the English Language.

 These books are kept on sale by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

They must also present evidence that they have been admitted as Candidates for Priests, Orders, or that they are graduates in Arts of some University or College, in which the learned languages are duly studied.

Applicants for admission to the Middle or Senior Classes, except Students with an honorable dismission from another Theological Seminary of the Church, are required, in addition to the above, to pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by the class to which they seek admission.

 Clergymen are not admitted to the Junior, Middle, or Senior Classes.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Clergymen and Candidates for Orders may be admitted to pursue such Special Studies as they desire to engage in, without being members of any of the three classes. In the case of Candidates for Orders this privilege can be granted only to those who have pursued studies equivalent to those in the regular course they wish to omit, or whose Bishops have given them a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the studies of the regular classes.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

Open to the Alumni of this Seminary, or of any incorporated Theological School of the Church, vide page 37 of this Catalogue.

Applications for admission, and for further particulars, should be addressed to the Dean 1 Chelsea Square, New York.

PRIZES.

THE McVICKAR PRIZES.

There are two Annual Prizes of Thirty Dollars and Twenty Dollars, founded in 1850 by the late Rev. John McVickar, D.D., and the late Rev. Henry McVickar, to be awarded by the Executive Committee of the Associate Alumni, among the members of the Senior Class during the Easter recess in each year, under such an arrangement of time and place as may be agreeable to the Faculty of the Seminary, namely:

1. Of Thirty Dollars, being known as the "Greek Alumni Prize," to be tested in open competition, by oral and written examinations (though as far as may be by the pen, after the manner of the English University Examinations for Honors) on the Greek Scriptures generally, including the Septuagint, and if oral, "ad aperturam libri;" also in one or more of the Greek Fathers—such authors being designated, to those competing for the prize, at least six months before.

2. Of Twenty Dollars, to be known as the "Alumni Prize in Ecclesiastical History," the examination in the same to be conducted as above—in part at least by the pen; and to have special reference to the early history and canonical independence of the Church of England, as being "sui juris" in all Ecclesiastical matters, a distinct and independent branch of the Church of CHRIST.

Those intending to compete for the above prizes are to give their names as candidates to the Dean, or other presiding officer, at least a month before the Easter Holidays; and between such only the competition is to be held, and each prize awarded.

The above prizes are to be paid over annually, before the Commencement, by the Treasurer of the Seminary, to the Students to whom they have been respectively awarded by said Committee, as certified by its Chairman; but in case, from any cause, the distribution of the above prizes should not take place, then the interest of the fund is to be paid over to the Dean, or other presiding officer of the Seminary, to be distributed by him, at his discretion, among necessitous and deserving Students.

The names of Students receiving prizes are entered on record in a book kept in the Library for that purpose, entitled "The Alumni Prize Record," and are also entered in the Annual Report made by the Faculty to the Trustees.

THE SEYMOUR PRIZE.

This prize, for the encouragement of extemporaneous preaching, and the committing to memory of certain portions of the Book of Common Prayer, was founded by an unknown Benefactor of the Seminary, in the year 1874, and was named by him, in honor of the Rev. George F. Seymour, D.D., LL.D., then Professor of Ecclesiastical History, "The Seymour Prize."

The Prize, as at present arranged, is a gold watch of the best American manufacture, with the inscription engraved on the inside, "Instant in season, out of season," the name of the prize, the year in which it was gained, and the full name of the person to whom it is awarded.

The competition shall take place every second year, beginning with 1876, on the third Saturday in January, and is open to matriculated Students of the Senior and Middle Classes.

In order to be qualified to contend for this prize, the founder prescribed that the Student must be able to recite from memory the entire service for the burial of the dead, except the rubrics, inasmuch as the clergy are frequently called upon to perform this office when it is impossible to use the book.

The Judges who shall award the prize shall be three in number, Presbyters, not Professors nor Instructors in the Seminary, to be selected by the Dean, or Acting Dean, at least two weeks before the day of competition.

The Judges shall assign the theme to be discussed, in the form of a proposition or text of Scripture, not more than one hour before the exercises begin.

The order in which the speakers are called shall be determined by lot, the Judges drawing the names of the competitors, and calling them in the order in which their names are drawn.

Each competitor, when he has concluded his sermon or address, shall immediately retire from the room where the exercises are held, nor shall he be allowed to be present at any time while his fellow-contestants are speaking. The time allowed the several speakers shall be the same for all, and shall be determined on each occasion by the Judges.

The Judges shall meet immediately after the exercises are ended, and award the prize. In case they decide that no one of the efforts is of sufficient merit to deserve the prize, then the interest which has accrued shall be added to the principal, and go to enlarge the endowment.

THE PIERRE JAY PRIZE.

Miss Elizabeth Clarkson Jay has provided an annual prize of $100 to be given to the student of the Seminary who writes the best essay on "The Motives for Foreign Missions." The essays are to be handed to the Dean before January 1st in each year. The Judges are to be the Dean of the Seminary, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L., and the Hon. Seth Low, LL.D.

THE BISHOP PADDOCK LECTURESHIP.

This Lectureship was founded in 1880, by Mr. GEORGE A. JARVIS, of Brooklyn, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, moved thereto by gratitude to God for the goodness and mercy that had followed him all the days of his life; and impressed by a deep sense of the good which would, with God's blessing, grow out of an endowment for the encouragement of "the defence and confirmation of the Gospel" by godly and well-learned men.

He named it after his former beloved pastor and ever-endeared friend, the Right Rev. Benjamin Henry Paddock, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts.

The Lecturer is to be appointed by the Dean of the General Theological Seminary, the Bishop of Massachusetts, the Bishop of Connecticut, and the Bishop of Long Island, and their successors in office, or such of them as may accept such trust, who are designated and constituted "THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT." He must be an ordained minister in good standing of this Church, or of some Church in communion with it; and shall deliver, at such time and place as may be required, a Course of Lecture Sermons, in number not less than four, nor more than seven. And no previous Lecturer shall be eligible unless at least seven years shall have intervened between the two courses.

The subjects of the Lectures are to be such as appertain to the defence of the religion of Jesus Christ, as revealed in the Holy Bible and illustrated in the Book of Common Prayer, against the varying errors of the day, whether materialistic, rationalistic, or professedly religious; and also to its defence and confirmation in respect of such central truths as the Trinity, the Atonement, Justification, and the Inspiration of the Word of God; and of such central facts as the Church's divine order and Sacraments, her historical Reformation, and her rights and powers as a pure and national Church. And other subjects may be chosen, if unanimously approved by the Board of Appointment as being both timely and also within the true intent of this Lectureship.

FELLOWSHIPS.

THE JOHN H. TALMAN FELLOWSHIP.

This Fellowship was founded in 1881, by MISS CAROLINE TALMAN, of New York, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, and called, in memory of her father, "The John H. Talman Fellowship."

The entire income of the endowment, after keeping the Talman room in the Seminary properly furnished, is to be paid to the holder of the Fellowship in quarterly payments, excepting that, during a vacancy in the said Fellowship, it is to be added to the endowment or paid by order of the Dean of the Seminary to some necessitous student thereof, who on Sundays and Holy Days shall assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

This Fellowship may be held for five years, and no longer, by any unmarried Graduate of the Seminary in Holy Orders, who shall be appointed by the Faculty with the approval, or on the nomination of the Rector, if there be one, of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in this city; but such appointment must be renewed from year to year on evidence that the holder of the Fellowship is fulfilling the purpose of the endowment.

The holder of the Fellowship is to have access to the library, admission to all the lectures, and free use of the Talman room, with the understanding that he shall leave the furniture in as good condition as he received it, ordinary wear and tear alone excepted. He must remain unmarried, reside in the Seminary buildings, pursue, under the supervision of the Faculty, such studies as meet their approval, and be subject to be called upon from time to time to give such evidence of his fidelity and proficiency in his studies as the Faculty may require. He shall, if required by the Faculty, devote one hour a day to teaching in the Seminary under their direction; and on Sundays and Saints' days assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

If he shall pursue any profession or employment otherwise than by permission of the Faculty and Standing Committee of the Seminary, or shall fail at any time to comply with its Rules and Regulations, he shall forfeit his right to the benefit of the Fellowship, and may be removed therefrom by a resolution of the Faculty.

APPENDIX.

THE General Theological Seminary was founded in 1817, for the education of Candidates for Holy Orders, as an institution which should "have the united support of the whole Church in these United States, and be under the superintendence and control of the General Convention," with a Board of Trustees representing all the Dioceses.

LOCATION.

The Seminary buildings are situated on Chelsea Square, bounded by Ninth and Tenth Avenues, between Twentieth and Twenty-first Streets. They are built of stone and brick, in the most solid and substantial manner, and will accommodate one hundred and seventeen Students with rooms. There is no more healthy location in the city. The advantages which a large city presents for the training of young men for the sacred ministry are not less numerous and important than those which invite hither such large numbers to prepare for the professions of Law and Medicine. They are here brought into contact with the best forms of Church life and work, and are surrounded by influences which broaden their minds, refine their manners, and elevate their characters. Engaging in varied forms of work, which contribute largely to their support, they have, under the direction of wise and faithful pastors, the opportunity of adding to sacred, solid learning, the teachings of acknowledged experience.

ADMISSION.

Persons applying for admission must be Candidates for Holy Orders, with full qualifications, in the Protestant Episcopal Church, or produce satisfactory evidence of religious and moral character, of classical and scientific attainments, of attachment to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of being communicants of the same, and of such qualifications as fit them for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry. For forms of Testimonials and subjects of entrance examination, see second page of cover.

To be admitted to the Middle or Senior Classes, applicants must pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by those classes.

Students from other Theological Seminaries of the Church may be admitted on presenting a certificate of honorable dismission and good standing.

Digitized by Google

Students who have already studied portions of the Seminary Course, or their equivalents, or who have a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the regular studies of the classes, may be admitted as Special Students.

There is a Post-Graduate Course open to the Alumni and to graduates of other Theological Seminaries of the Church.

Clergymen can only be received as Special Students or to the Post-Graduate Course.

Seminary Year.

The Seminary year begins on the Wednesday in the Autumnal Ember Week, and ends with the exercises of the Commencement, which are held on the Wednesday after Whitsun Day. There is a suspension of lectures and recitations from Christmas Eve to the Feast of the Epiphany, both inclusive, and from Thursday before Easter to Saturday after Easter, both inclusive, also on Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day, and on all days of Thanksgiving or Fasting appointed by the Ecclesiastical or Civil authority.

Chapel Services.

The Morning Prayer is said at 9 A.M., every day except on Sundays, and the Evening Prayer at 5.30 P.M., every day throughout the Seminary year. Upon these services each Student is required to attend, unless specially excused by the Dean. The Holy Communion is administered on every Sunday, Thursday, Saint's Day and Holy Day, at 7 A.M.

In Memoriam.—The Trustees, in perpetual memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, to whom the Seminary owes the chapel, have ordered that its bells be appropriately rung, under the direction of the Dean, on the days when they entered into the rest of Paradise, viz.: on the sixth day of October and the eighteenth day of February in every year.

Examinations.

The Students are examined by the Professors at the close of each year. These examinations are conducted in the presence of a Committee appointed for that purpose by the Board of Trustees, which Committee is authorized and requested to attend, occasionally, the recitations of the Students during the course of the year.

Testimonials.

At the Annual Commencement, Students who have satisfactorily accomplished the full course of study, receive Testimonials of the same signed by the Dean and Faculty, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. This Testimonial is conferred by the Senior Bishop present at the Commencement.

Degrees.

The Faculty recommends for the Degree of Bachelor in Sacred Theology graduating members of the Senior class whose average grade of marks during their Seminary course has not fallen below nine, and who are deemed otherwise worthy of the reward.

Scholarships.

There are twenty-nine endowed Scholarships, averaging about one hundred and sixty dollars a year each, to aid necessitous Students.

The Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York also gives annual scholarships of one, two and three hundred dollars, the amount depending on the grade of the entrance or the preceding annual examinations. Applications for these scholarships should be made, at the beginning of each year, to the Superintendent of the Society, the Rev. Prof. Oliver.

Post-Graduate Course.—Instituted in 1883.

This course is designed to meet the wants of those who wish to pursue an advanced course of general theological study, or to apply themselves to special subjects of reading and investigation in any of the departments of Theology, or of any question—whether critical, practical, or philosophical, —which may engage the attention of Christian scholars or pastors, under the personal advice and direction of the Professors, and with the advantages of the large library of the Seminary and other libraries in the city.

It is open to our own Alumni, and to graduates of other Theological Schools of the Church, who present testimonials of their fidelity and proficiency in study, from the school from which they have been graduated, and who express the purpose to remain through the year, unless unexpectedly or unavoidably prevented.

The instruction will be given by the Faculty, and by Lecturers who have made a specialty of the subjects which they are invited to discuss. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research, and the results of such work are to be given in Essays which the students are expected to prepare.

These students will be, whenever necessary, given Scholarships, and permitted to reside in the Seminary buildings under the same rules, with the exception of attendance upon lectures, as other students. The Library and certain lectures of Columbia College are open to them free of charge.

The Faculty suggest the following Schemes of Study for the Post-Graduates:

In the Department of Biblical Learning: The Canon of the Old and New Testament, and the Prolegomena to the several Books.

In the Department of Systematic Divinity: Studies in the Incarnation. Text-Book, Dörner's Person of Christ; Clark's Foreign Theological Library.

In the Department of Pastoral Theology: Moral and Casuistical Theology.

In the Department of Ecclesiastical History: I. The Œcumenical Councils. II. The Rise and Growth of Rationalism in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries. III. The Renaissance and the Era of the Reformation.

In the Department of Hebrew and Greek Languages: I. Advanced course in Hebrew. II. The Septuagint. III. Biblical Chaldee and Syriac.

In the Department of the Evidences of Revealed Religion: I. The History of Apologetics from the Apostles' time down to the present day. II. The Moral Difficulties of the Old Testament. III. The Great Ethnic Religions. IV. Primitive Religion, as portrayed by Max Müller and others.

In the Department of Ecclesiastical Polity and Law: I. The Origin, Nature, Development and Application of Canon Law. II. The Ecclesiastical Law of the State, and the relation between it and the Canon Law. III. The Provincial System. IV. The Conventional System in the Church in the United States.

In the Department of Sacred Philosophy and Christian Ethics: I. The History of Philosophy. II. The Philosophy of the Schoolmen. III. The Philosophical Basis of Ethics and of Theism. IV. The Connection between Philosophy and Religion.

Library.

The Library occupies the new fire-proof building, Hobart Hall. It is admirably arranged with a complete Card Catalogue of authors and subjects, so as to render the very valuable collection of books belonging to the Seminary available for consultation and use by the Students. The number of volumes, according to the last report submitted to the Trustees in May, 1892, was 21,754.

It is open daily (Sundays excepted) from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., for the consultation and delivery of books. It is supplied with most of the American and some of the English Church periodicals and papers.

Digitized by Google

No books can be taken from the Library except by the Professors and Students of the Seminary; but it is accessible for consultation of the books to all persons who may desire the privilege, under the direction of the Librarian.

The students have also the privilege of using the Astor, Lenox, Columbia College, and New York Historical Society Libraries.

⁂ Copies of Diocesan Journals, and of any pamphlets pertaining to the history of the Church, Dioceses, or Parishes, if sent to the Library, will be preserved with care for future reference.

⁂ The Alumni are earnestly requested to send copies of everything they may publish.

Rooms and Expenses.

The tuition is free. The rooms are furnished with the exception of bed-clothing. The charge for board, room, coal, gas, and care of room is two hundred and twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance semi-annually, in September and January. No deduction is made except for absence caused by sickness prolonged for more than a month. Students living out of the Seminary are charged twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance in September. Other expenses of Students are personal and will vary according to the habits of the individual, from one to three hundred dollars a year. Each Student is required to provide himself with an academical black gown and Oxford cap.

The Association was organized in October, 1832, and incorporated in 1889.

It is designed to embrace all the Graduates of the Seminary. Its objects are :—To cherish a spirit of mutual interest and union among its members; to advance the cause of Theological learning and Evangelical truth and piety, and to promote the advantage of the Institution with which it is connected.

The Annual Meeting is held on the day before the Commencement, when an Essay is delivered. A triennial meeting is also held during the Session of the General Convention, when a Sermon is preached before the Alumni.

Essayist, the Rev. JOHN H. KNOWLES.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

The next Seminary year will begin on Wednesday, September 19th, 1894. Applicants for admission should present themselves for examination at Sherred Hall on that day, at 9.30 A.M., provided with pen and ink. If they wish rooms reserved for them, they must send their full names, with name of College from which they graduated and Diocese to which they belong, with their testimonials, to the Dean before that date. The rooms cannot be occupied until the day before the Seminary opens, and, except by special arrangement, they will not be reserved after the day of the Annual Entrance Examination.

The requirements for admission are as follows:

TESTIMONIAL.

Evidence of having been admitted as a Candidate for Deacon's or Priest's Orders; or,

A Testimonial in the following (or an equivalent) form, signed by one Presbyter and four respectable Laymen, communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

We, whose names are hereunder written, testify, from our personal knowledge and belief, that.....is pious, sober, and honest; that he is attached to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and that he is a communicant of the said Church, in good standing; and do furthermore declare that, in our opinion, he possesses such qualifications as fit him for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry.

Dated,.....18

EXAMINATION.

Applicants for admission (unless they desire to be admitted as Special Students) are required by the Statutes to pass a written examination in the following, or their equivalents:

i. S. G. Green's Hand-book to the Grammar of the New Testament, page 167 to Vocabulary. Religious Tract Society, London.
ii. The Acts of the Apostles in the original.
iii. The Outlines of Ancient Geography. Hurlbut's Manual of Biblical Geography, Rand, McNally & Co.
iv. Maclear's Class Books of the Catechism and of the History of the Old and New Testaments.
v. Craik's Outlines of the History of the English Language.

 These books are kept on sale by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

They must also present evidence that they are graduates in Arts of some University or College, in which the learned languages are duly studied, unless their testimonial shows that they have been admitted as candidates for Priest's Orders.

Applicants for admission to the Middle or Senior Classes, except Students with an honorable dismission from another Theological Seminary of the Church, are required, in addition to the above, to pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by the class to which they seek admission.

 Clergymen are not admitted to the Junior, Middle, or Senior Classes.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Clergymen and Candidates for Orders may be admitted to pursue such Special Studies as they desire to engage in, without being members of any of the three classes. In the case of Candidates for Orders this privilege can be granted only to those who have pursued studies equivalent to those in the regular course they wish to omit, or whose Bishops have given them a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the studies of the regular classes.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

Open to the Alumni of this Seminary, or of any incorporated Theological School of the Church, vide page 45 of this Catalogue.

Applications for admission, and for further particulars, should be addressed to the Dean, 1 Chelsea Square, New York.

DEPARTMENT OF THE EVIDENCES OF REVEALED RELIGION.

Junior Class.

Butler's Analogy, as supplying a stable foundation for the entire superstructure of Apologetics, is made the subject of thorough study. Its text is minutely examined, and its difficulties, as far as possible, cleared up; frequent lectures upon topics directly illustrative of it, or suggested by it, are given; additional applications of the argument are indicated; and its immediate pertinency and living force, as respects contemporaneous unbelief, are insisted upon.

BOOKS OF REFERENCE.

Bruce's Apologetics, Book I., Chaps. V. and VI.; Pfleiderer's Philosophy of Religion, Vol. I., Chap. IV.; Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity, Book I., and, as the main deistic work to which the Apology is an answer, Tindal's Christianity as Old as the Creation.

Middle Class.

Four courses of lectures are given by the Professor. The first is on Anthropology, in so far as certain of its truths and facts enter into the foundation, or furnish certain features, of the Theistic argument; the second is a full and systematic presentation of the various and cumulative proofs of Theism, with especial reference to the objections made to them in recent years; the third takes up the subject of Evolution, and points out in what ways and to what extent, in its modern scientific and philosophical forms, it is consistent or inconsistent with Holy Scripture and Catholic Truth; and the fourth passes in review the several systems contradictory or opposed to Theism—Atheism, Materialism, Positivism, etc.

BOOKS OF REFERENCE.

Aquinas's Pars Prima; Liddon's Elements of Religion; Flint's Theism and Anti-Theistic Theories; Dinan's Theistic Argument; Orr's Christian View of God and the World; Paley's Natural Theology; Martineau's Study of Religion; Janet's Final Causes; The Bridgewater Treatises; Bishop Cotterill's Does Science aid Faith? Aubrey Moore's Science and Faith; Lux Mundi, Paper II., The Christian Doctrine of God.

Senior Class.

The Positive Evidences of Christianity are placed before the students in a systematic and logical form by means of lectures.

I. The Presumptions in Favor of Christianity, such as its Reasonableness, its Desirableness, or Inherent Attractiveness, etc., are exhibited.

II. The Direct Proofs of Christianity are next drawn out in the following order:

a. The Need of Revelation; the a priori Probability of its gift; the Nature of the existing Revelation; the Bible's Intrinsic or Self-contained Evidences of its Divine Origin, etc.

b. The Inspiration of the Scriptures, its Nature, Quality, Area, etc.; the various Theories concerning it.

c. The Authenticity and Genuineness of the Books comprising the Canon of Scripture, and specially the Authenticity and Genuineness of the Four Gospels.

PRIZES.

THE McVICKAR PRIZES.

There are two Annual Prizes of Thirty Dollars and Twenty Dollars, founded in 1850 by the late Rev. John McVickar, D.D., and the late Rev. Henry McVickar, to be awarded by the Executive Committee of the Associate Alumni, among the members of the Senior Class during the Easter recess in each year, under such an arrangement of time and place as may be agreeable to the Faculty of the Seminary, namely:

1. Of Thirty Dollars, being known as the "Greek Alumni Prize," to be tested in open competition, by oral and written examinations (though as far as may be by the pen, after the manner of the English University Examinations for Honors) on the Greek Scriptures generally, including the Septuagint, and if oral, "ad aperturam libri;" also in one or more of the Greek Fathers—such authors being designated, to those competing for the prize, at least six months before.

2. Of Twenty Dollars, to be known as the "Alumni Prize in Ecclesiastical History," the examination in the same to be conducted as above—in part at least by the pen; and to have special reference to the early history and canonical independence of the Church of England, as being "sui juris" in all Ecclesiastical matters, a distinct and independent branch of the Church of CHRIST.

Those intending to compete for the above prizes are to give their names as candidates to the Dean, or other presiding officer, at least a month before the Easter Holidays; and between such only the competition is to be held, and each prize awarded.

The above prizes are to be paid over annually, before the Commencement, by the Treasurer of the Seminary, to the Students to whom they have been respectively awarded by said Committee, as certified by its Chairman; but in case, from any cause, the distribution of the above prizes should not take place, then the interest of the fund is to be paid over to the Dean, or other presiding officer of the Seminary, to be distributed by him, at his discretion, among necessitous and deserving Students.

The names of Students receiving prizes are entered on record in a book kept in the Library for that purpose, entitled "The Alumni Prize Record," and are also entered in the Annual Report made by the Faculty to the Trustees.

THE SEYMOUR PRIZE.

This prize, for the encouragement of extemporaneous preaching, and the committing to memory of certain portions of the Book of Common Prayer, was founded by an unknown Benefactor of the Seminary, in the year 1874, and was named by him, in honor of the Rev. George F. Seymour, D.D., LL.D., then Professor of Ecclesiastical History, "The Seymour Prize."

The Prize, as at present arranged, is a gold watch of the best American manufacture, with the inscription engraved on the inside, "Instant in season, out of season," the name of the prize, the year in which it was gained, and the full name of the person to whom it is awarded.

The competition shall take place every second year, beginning with 1876, on the third Saturday in January, and is open to matriculated Students of the Senior and Middle Classes.

In order to be qualified to contend for this prize, the founder prescribed that the Student must be able to recite from memory the entire service for the burial of the dead, except the rubrics, inasmuch as the clergy are frequently called upon to perform this office when it is impossible to use the book.

The Judges who shall award the prize shall be three in number, Presbyters, not Professors nor Instructors in the Seminary, to be selected by the Dean, or Acting Dean, at least two weeks before the day of competition.

The Judges shall assign the theme to be discussed, in the form of a proposition or text of Scripture, not more than one hour before the exercises begin.

The order in which the speakers are called shall be determined by lot, the Judges drawing the names of the competitors, and calling them in the order in which their names are drawn.

Each competitor, when he has concluded his sermon or address, shall immediately retire from the room where the exercises are held, nor shall he be allowed to be present at any time while his fellow-contestants are speaking. The time allowed the several speakers shall be the same for all, and shall be determined on each occasion by the Judges.

The Judges shall meet immediately after the exercises are ended, and award the prize. In case they decide that no one of the efforts is of sufficient merit to deserve the prize, then the interest which has accrued shall be added to the principal, and go to enlarge the endowment.

THE PIERRE JAY PRIZE.

Miss Elizabeth Clarkson Jay has provided an annual prize of $100 to be given to the student of the Seminary who writes the best essay on "The Motives for Foreign Missions." The essays are to be handed to the Dean before January 1st in each year; they must be type written and not exceed three thousand words in length. The Judges are to be the Dean of the Seminary, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L., and the Hon. Seth Low, LL.D.

The degree of Doctor in Sacred Theology will not be conferred on any candidate until twelve years after he has received the degree of Master of Arts, or Bachelor in Sacred Theology, nor until he has been at least twelve years in Holy Orders.

The Hood of the Bachelor in Sacred Theology is of the Oxford shape, and of black ribbed silk, lined with purple silk.

The Hood of the Doctor in Sacred Theology is of the Oxford shape, and of scarlet cloth, lined with purple silk.

The Fee for the Bachelor's degree is Ten Dollars, and that for the Doctor's degree Twenty Dollars, except when the degree is conferred for special cause. These fees are to be paid to the Treasurer of the Seminary before the Degree is conferred, and cover the cost of the appropriate Hood.

All graduates of the Seminary who have not received a degree in Theology, are entitled, after ordination, to wear a black stuff hood, with a purple silk border, not more than one inch wide, of the pattern known as the Literate's Hood in England. These hoods can be procured from the Bursar Cost, Five Dollars each.

THE BISHOP PADDOCK LECTURESHIP.

This Lectureship was founded in 1880, by Mr. GEORGE A. JARVIS, of Brooklyn, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, moved thereto by gratitude to God for the goodness and mercy that had followed him all the days of his life; and impressed by a deep sense of the good which would, with God's blessing, grow out of an endowment for the encouragement of "the defence and confirmation of the Gospel" by godly and well-learned men.

He named it after his former beloved pastor and ever-endeared friend, the Right Rev. Benjamin Henry Paddock, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts.

The Lecturer is to be appointed by the Dean of the General Theological Seminary, the Bishop of Massachusetts, the Bishop of Connecticut, and the Bishop of Long Island, and their successors in office, or such of them as may accept such trust, who are designated and constituted "THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT." He must be an ordained minister in good standing of this Church, or of some Church in communion with it; and shall deliver, at such time and place as may be required, a Course of Lecture Sermons, in number not less than four, nor more than seven. And no previous Lecturer shall be eligible unless at least seven years shall have intervened between the two courses.

LECTURERS.

FELLOWSHIPS.

THE JOHN H. TALMAN FELLOWSHIP.

This Fellowship was founded in 1881, by Miss Caroline Talman, of New York, with an endowment of ten thousand dollars, and called, in memory of her father, "The John H. Talman Fellowship."

The entire income of the endowment, after keeping the Talman room in the Seminary properly furnished, is to be paid to the holder of the Fellowship in quarterly payments, excepting that, during a vacancy in the said Fellowship, it is to be added to the endowment or paid by order of the Dean of the Seminary to some necessitous student thereof, who on Sundays and Holy Days shall assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

This Fellowship may be held for five years, and no longer, by any unmarried Graduate of the Seminary in Holy Orders, who shall be appointed by the Faculty, with the approval or on the nomination of the Rector, if there be one, of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in this city; but such appointment must be renewed from year to year on evidence that the holder of the Fellowship is fulfilling the purpose of the endowment.

The holder of the Fellowship is to have access to the library, admission to all the lectures, and free use of the Talman room, with the understanding that he shall leave the furniture in as good condition as he received it, ordinary wear and tear alone excepted. He must remain unmarried, reside in the Seminary buildings, pursue, under the supervision of the Faculty, such studies as meet their approval, and be subject to be called upon from time to time to give such evidence of his fidelity and proficiency in his studies as the Faculty may require. He shall, if required by the Faculty, devote one hour a day to teaching in the Seminary under their direction; and on Sundays and Saints' days assist the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in its services.

If he shall pursue any profession or employment otherwise than by permission of the Faculty and Standing Committee of the Seminary, or shall fail at any time to comply with its Rules and Regulations, he shall forfeit his right to the benefit of the Fellowship, and may be removed therefrom by a resolution of the Faculty.

THE EMMA C. MAYO FELLOWSHIPS.

Three Fellowships were founded by a legacy of Miss Emma Carrington Mayo, of Elizabeth, N. J., amounting to twenty-four thousand dollars.

The incumbents must be alumni of the Seminary, and appointed by the Provincial Superior in America of the Society of Mission Priests of St. John the Evangelist, of Cowley, England, subject to the approval of the Faculty of the Seminary. They shall have access to the Library, and to all the lectures of the Seminary; shall remain unmarried; shall, if required by the Faculty, devote one hour each day to teaching in the Seminary under their direction; may reside in the Seminary, in rooms rented from the authorities at their own expense, or elsewhere, as they may prefer; shall pursue a course of study under the direction of the Faculty for the term of five years, at the end of which period the incumbency shall expire by limitation in each Fellowship, and a successor in each, duly appointed as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the income thereof; except that the term of either one of the Fellowships may be extended by the said Provincial Superior with consent of the Faculty.

The holders of the Fellowships may be permitted by the Faculty to pursue their studies abroad for such part of their incumbency as the Faculty shall approve and direct. If either of the incumbents of the Fellowships shall violate any of the foregoing conditions, or pursue any profession or employment inconsistent with the full, fair, and faithful performance of his duties and obligations as above set forth, he shall forfeit his right to the benefits of the Fellowship, and may be removed therefrom by a resolution of the Faculty, and a successor, duly appointed as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the income thereof.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

THE General Theological Seminary was founded in 1817, for the education of Candidates for Holy Orders, as an institution which should "have the united support of the whole Church in these United States, and be under the superintendence and control of the General Convention," with a Board of Trustees representing all the Dioceses.

LOCATION.

The Seminary buildings are situated on Chelsea Square, bounded by Ninth and Tenth Avenues, between Twentieth and Twenty-first Streets. They are built of stone and brick, in the most solid and substantial manner, and will accommodate one hundred and seventeen Students with rooms. There is no more healthy location in the city. The advantages which a large city presents for the training of young men for the sacred ministry are not less numerous and important than those which invite hither such large numbers to prepare for the professions of Law and Medicine. They are here brought into contact with the best forms of Church life and work, and are surrounded by influences which broaden their minds, refine their manners, and elevate their characters. Engaging in varied forms of work, which contribute largely to their support, they have, under the direction of wise and faithful pastors, the opportunity of adding to sacred, solid learning, the teachings of acknowledged experience.

ADMISSION.

Persons applying for admission must be Candidates for Priests' Orders, with full qualifications, in the Protestant Episcopal Church, or produce satisfactory evidence of religious and moral character, of classical and scientific attainments, of attachment to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of being communicants of the same, and of such qualifications as fit them for entrance on a course of preparation for the Holy Ministry. For forms of Testimonials and subjects of entrance examination, see second page of cover.

To be admitted to the Middle or Senior Classes, applicants must pass a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by those classes.

Students from other Theological Seminaries of the Church may be admitted on presenting a certificate of honorable dismission and good standing.

Students who have already studied portions of the Seminary Course, or their equivalents, or who have a dispensation from Hebrew, or who are unable to keep up with the regular studies of the classes, may be admitted as Special Students.

There is a Post-Graduate Course open to the Alumni and to graduates of other Theological Seminaries of the Church.

Clergymen can only be received as Special Students or to the Post-Graduate Course.

Seminary Year.

The Seminary year begins on the Wednesday in the Autumnal Ember Week, and ends with the exercises of the Commencement, which are held on the Wednesday after Whitsun Day. There is a suspension of lectures and recitations from Christmas Eve to the Feast of the Epiphany, both inclusive, and from the Thursday before Easter to the Saturday after Easter, both inclusive, also on Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day, and on all days of Thanksgiving or Fasting appointed by the Ecclesiastical or Civil authority.

Chapel Services.

The Morning Prayer is said at 9 A.M., every day except on Sundays, and the Evening Prayer at 5.30 P.M., every day throughout the Seminary year. Upon these services each Student is required to attend, unless specially excused by the Dean. The Holy Communion is administered on every Sunday, Thursday, Saint's Day and Holy Day, at 7 A.M.

In Memoriam.—The Trustees, in perpetual memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, to whom the Seminary owes the chapel, have ordered that its bells be appropriately rung, under the direction of the Dean, on the days when they entered into the rest of Paradise, viz.: on the sixth day of October and the eighteenth day of February in every year.

Examinations.

The Students are examined by the Professors at the close of each year. "These examinations are held in the presence of a Committee appointed for that purpose by the Board of Trustees, and are, in whole or in part, in writing."

Digitized by Google

Testimonials.

At the Annual Commencement, Students who have satisfactorily accomplished the full course of study, receive Testimonials of the same signed by the Dean and Faculty, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. This Testimonial is conferred by the Senior Bishop present at the Commencement.

Degrees.

The Faculty recommends for the Degree of Bachelor in Sacred Theology graduating members of the Senior class whose average grade of marks during their Seminary course has not fallen below nine, and who are deemed otherwise worthy of the reward.

Scholarships.

There are thirty-two endowed Scholarships, averaging about one hundred and sixty dollars a year each, to aid necessitous Students.

The Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York also gives annual scholarships of one, two, and three hundred dollars, the amount depending on the grade of the entrance or the preceding annual examinations. Applications for these scholarships should be made, at the beginning of each year, to the Superintendent of the Society, the Rev. Andrew Oliver, D.D.

Post-Graduate Course.—Instituted in 1883.

This course is designed to meet the wants of those who wish to pursue an advanced course of general theological study, or to apply themselves to special subjects of reading and investigation in any of the departments of Theology, or of any question—whether critical, practical, or philosophical,—which may engage the attention of Christian scholars or pastors, under the personal advice and direction of the Professors, and with the advantages of the large library of the Seminary and other libraries in the city.

It is open to the Alumni of the Seminary, and to graduates of other Theological Schools of the Church, who present testimonials of their fidelity and proficiency in study, from the school from which they have been graduated, and who express the purpose to remain through the year, unless unexpectedly or unavoidably prevented.

The instruction will be given by the Faculty, and by Lecturers who have made a specialty of the subjects which they are invited to discuss. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research, and the results of such work are to be given in Essays which the students are expected to prepare.

These students will be, as far as the funds permit, given Scholarships, and permitted to reside in the Seminary buildings under the same rules, with the exception of attendance upon lectures, as other students. The Library and certain lectures of Columbia College are open to them free of charge.

The Faculty suggest the following Schemes of Study for the Post-Graduates:

In the Department of Biblical Learning: The Canon of the Old and New Testament, and the Prolegomena to the several Books.

In the Department of Dogmatic Theology: Studies in the Incarnation. Text-Book, Dörner's Person of Christ; Clark's Foreign Theological Library.

In the Department of Pastoral Theology: Moral and Casuistical Theology.

In the Department of Ecclesiastical History: I. The Œcumenical Councils. II. The Rise and Growth of Rationalism in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries. III. The Renaissance and the Era of the Reformation.

In the Department of Hebrew and Greek Languages: I. Advanced course in Hebrew. II. The Septuagint. III. Biblical Chaldee and Syriac.

In the Department of the Evidences of Revealed Religion: I. The History of Apologetics from the Apostles' time down to the present day. II. The Moral Difficulties of the Old Testament. III. The Great Ethnic Religions. IV. Primitive Religion, as portrayed by Max Müller and others.

In the Department of Ecclesiastical Polity and Law: I. The Origin, Nature, Development and Application of Canon Law. II. The Ecclesiastical Law of the State, and the relation between it and the Canon Law. III. The Provincial System. IV. The Conventional System in the Church in the United States.

In the Department of Moral Theology and Christian Philosophy: I. The History of Philosophy. II. The Philosophy of the Schoolmen. III. The Philosophical Basis of Ethics and of Theism. IV. The Connection between Philosophy and Religion.

Library.

The Library occupies the new fire-proof building, Hobart Hall. It is admirably arranged with a complete Card Catalogue of authors and subjects, so as to render the very valuable collection of books belonging to the Seminary available for consultation and use by the Students. The number of volumes, according to the last report submitted to the Trustees in May, 1893, was 22,775.

It is open daily (Sundays excepted) from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., for the consultation and delivery of books. It is supplied with most of the American and some of the English Church periodicals and papers.

No books can be taken from the Library except by the Professors and Students of the Seminary; but it is accessible for consultation of the books to all persons who may desire the privilege, under the direction of the Librarian.

The students have also the privilege of using the Astor, Lenox, Columbia College, and New York Historical Society Libraries.

 Copies of Diocesan Journals, and of any pamphlets pertaining to the history of the Church, Dioceses, or Parishes, if sent to the Library, will be preserved with care for future reference.

 The Alumni are earnestly requested to send copies of everything they may publish.

Rooms and Expenses.

The tuition is free. The rooms are furnished with the exception of bed-clothing. The charge for board, room, coal, gas, and care of room is two hundred and twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance semi-annually, in September and January. No deduction is made except for absence caused by sickness prolonged for more than a month. Students living out of the Seminary are charged twenty-five dollars a year, payable in advance in September. Other expenses of Students are personal and will vary according to the habits of the individual, from one to three hundred dollars a year. Each Student is required to provide himself with an academical black gown and Oxford cap.

The Association was organized in October, 1832, and incorporated in 1889.

It is designed to embrace all the Graduates of the Seminary. Its objects are :—To cherish a spirit of mutual interest and union among its members; to advance the cause of Theological learning and Evangelical truth and piety, and to promote the advantage of the Institution with which it is connected.

The Annual Meeting is held on the day before the Commencement, when an Essay is delivered. A triennial meeting is also held during the Session of the General Convention, when a Sermon is preached before the Alumni.

Essayist, the Rev. W. W. BATTERSHALL, D.D. Substitute, the Rev. WILLIAM B. FRISBY.

CATALOGUE OF THE ALUMNI.

[The † designates the Alumni who are deceased. The date after the name of the Alumnus is the year of his decease. The letter R. stands for Rector; the letter M. for Missionary; the letter O. for Officiating; and the letters Ass't. for Assistant Minister. When the Alumnus is deceased the Parish or Post-office opposite his name is either the last, or the principal position which he held during his life.]

The Seminary still needs larger endowments and additional buildings, especially a Refectory and Gymnasium, to enable it to meet the demands upon it.

A Dormitory to accommodate sixteen students, or a Professor's House, can be built for $20,000. The Refectory and Gymnasium will cost $75,000. Any of these buildings may be made Memorials.

The following are the most pressing of its needs for the Endowments:

1. To endow unendowed Professorships, each, at least, - - $50,000
2. To complete the endowment of two Professorships, each, - 25,000
3. To endow Lectureships, each, - - - - - - 10,000
4. To endow Fellowships, each, - - - - $10,000 to 15,000
5. To endow Scholarships, each, - - - - - - 5,000

It earnestly looks to its friends, and to Churchmen in every part of the country, to supply these needs. Will not its Alumni and friends make appeals in its behalf?
